A NOTE FROM THE COMMUNITY SERVICES DIRECTOR...

What can we do to enhance the health and well-being of our community? That is the question our Community Services team members and recreational leaders ask when considering and planning recreation classes, creative camps, healthy activities, enrichment programs and social opportunities. Whether our offerings are at our City’s community centers, parks or facilities, we strive to provide fun and interesting classes, activities, programs and events that keep babies to seniors entertained, creative, active, stimulated, and socially engaged! Browse through the spring catalog to find hundreds of offerings. There is something for everyone! We hope you find us to be your best resource!

On February 24, spring and summer camps for 2019 will be unveiled at the Community Services Department Showcase at the Beverly Hills Farmers’ Market from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Come see live demonstrations of some of our camp offerings. Information booths with subject matter experts will help you find the appropriate camps for your kids’ interests.

The 2019 Spring and Summer Camp line up introduces many new and popular camps. Teens told us they want camps that offer fun excursions, hanging-out time with peers and challenging activities to keep them motivated. Beverly Hills Teen Camp will provide field trips, an escape room and cooling off at the pool, just to name a few of the camp highlights! Our Yoga Retreat is a new camp being offered for 5-10 year olds that will help develop inner and outer strength. Bewwood Volleyball Camp and Bewwood Basketball Camp are just a few of our many sports and fitness camps that will help you improve your athletic and sportsmanship skills! Choose from over 25 camps in performing arts, math and science, sports and fitness and specialty camps like Animal Encounters, Camp Beverly Hills, Jr. Police Academy and Bizzy Girls Entrepreneurship.

Besides parks and recreation, don’t forget about the other resources your Community Services Department provides! The Beverly Hills Public Library offers a place to not only check out books and periodicals, study or read, but provides a plethora of digital media services including Hoopla, Overdrive – 90210 To Go, Biblioboard, Bookflex and more. To learn more about the Beverly Hills Public Library’s services, go to www.bhpl.org.

And Human Services provides community members that need help with services and resources for free minor home repairs, housing rights, homelessness, senior needs and transportation and more. To learn more about Beverly Hills Human Services, go to www.beverlyhills.org/humanservices.

We wish you a happy, healthy and active spring season and hope you find what you’re looking for in our catalog. We welcome feedback about our classes, programs, activities, events and social opportunities. Contact us at dbeesen@beverlyhills.org. Connect with us on social media @BHRecandParks or find more information at www.beverlyhills.org to stay informed.

Spring is always a treat at the Beverly Hills Farmers’ Market. This seasonal change brings us some of our most cherished fruits and vegetables: bright cherries, juicy apricots, delicate spring onions, and the versatile artichoke, to name a few. We love the variety of fruits and vegetables that we get to choose from our amazing farmers!

Spring is also when we kick off some of our favorite events at the Farmers’ Market. Start planning your summer activities at our Community Services Department Showcase, Earth Day is a great day to spend with your family (also bring your documents that need shredding) and, of course, start practicing your pie recipes for the Pie Bake. See you at the Market!
