City of Beverly Hills Community Services Brings Music in the Mansion to Your Living Room

Beverly Hills, Calif. – The City’s popular classical concert series, Music in the Mansion, performed on the third Sunday every month from January through June at Greystone Mansion and Gardens, is airing its April concert with Zadig Trio, April 19th at 2 p.m. on Beverly Hills TV, (BHTV) Channel 10 for free. Those who don’t have access to BHTV, can tune in on beverlyhills.org/live.

“Music in the Mansion sells out each month, so we know how much people love this series. It’s also performed in the intimate setting of the living room at Greystone Mansion and Gardens, the City’s beloved estate and public garden, so we thought why not bring it to the intimate setting of our music lovers living rooms,” says Kristin Buhagiar, Community Services Manager.

Violinist Boris Borgolotto, cellist Marc Girard Garcia and American pianist Ian Barber unite their talents as the Zadig Trio, gaining critical praise for their impressive 11 international competition prizes, including First Prize at the FNAPEC Competition and Second Prize at the Bischoff National Chamber Music Competition in the U.S. The Zadig Trio is currently in-residence at the Queen Elisabeth Music Chapel in Belgium alongside the Artemis Quartet.

Boris Borgolotto joined iPalpiti in 2016, an organization dedicated to helping exceptionally gifted, professional musicians advance in their careers. In 2019, Borgolotto’s trio was invited as iPalpiti’s festival ensemble-in-residence. At once, the trio became a SoCal “darling” and is scheduled to return this July to play Beethoven’s Triple Concerto with iPalpiti at the new Conrad in La Jolla and Walt Disney Concert Hall.

Music in the Mansion offers the finest in solo and chamber music, sponsored by the City of Beverly Hills Community Services Department, under the artistic direction of Laura Schmieder, who founded iPalpiti International.
