Movies graciously chosen by movie aficionado Donald Butler.

MCKENNA'S GOLD: A bandit kidnaps a Marshal who has seen a map showing a gold vein on Indian lands, but other groups are looking for it too, while the Apache try to keep the secret location undisturbed.

GUNGA DIN: Three British soldiers are sent to India to investigate sabotaged telegraph wires. Ballantine's loyalties are divided, however, since all he longs for is to settle down with his beloved.

20,000 LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA: Sent to investigate a rash of shipwrecks, Ned encounters the nefarious Nemo's submarine. Paul Lukas, Peter Lorre and a frightening giant squid co-star in Richard Fleischer's epic.

ALI BABA & THE 40 THIEVES : Rich oriental lord Cassim's cheeky servant Ali Baba was sent to buy a meaty girl-slave, but brings dancer Morgiane, whom he is enamored with. When he's part of a caravan robbed by Abdel's 40 thieves, Ali hides in a camel hive and thus learns the secret of Sesame cave.

WHITE HUNTER, BLACK HEART: In this film, Clint Eastwood plays John Wilson, a thinly disguised version of director John Huston, the inspiration for writer Peter Viertel's book about the making of The African Queen. Instead of shooting the movie that brings him to Africa, Wilson is obsessed with hunting elephants and living life to its Hemingway-esque fullest, even as the project suffers.

TAMING OF THE SHREW: A younger sister cannot wed until her older, shrewish sister Katharina marries first. Petruchio is brought in to trick Katharina into wedlock, but the two fall in love despite their passionate bickering.

THE SANDPIPER: A tale of illicit love between a free-spirited single mother and a married minister. When her son is sent to a private school, bohemian Laura Reynolds shocks the school administrator, Episcopalian priest Edward Hewitt, with her attitudes and lifestyle. But the two soon are soon drawn to each other.

WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR: For over 30 years, Fred Rogers, an unassuming minister, puppeteer, writer and producer, was beamed daily into homes across America. In his beloved television program, Mister Rogers' Neighborhood, Fred and his cast of puppets and friends spoke directly to young children about some of life's weightiest issues, in a simple, direct fashion. There hadn't been anything like Mr. Rogers on television before and there hasn't been since.

WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF: On a serene New England campus, emasculated professor George and his rancorous wife, Martha, turn an evening of cocktails into an unrelenting onslaught of wrenching disclosures and bellowed epithets. Soon, the couple's guests -- junior professor Nick and his wife, Honey -- get sucked into the vortex of the warring duo's unbounded fury.
