REGISTER NOW FOR BEVERLY HILLS SUMMER CAMPS

Choose From 27 Different Camps and Dozens of Aquatic Activities

Beverly Hills, Calif. – Get ready for summer! Enroll your kids early! The City of Beverly Hills Community Services Department is currently accepting registration for summer camps and aquatic activities. The City has 27 different camps to choose from at multiple times throughout the summer. Some of the exciting camps offered include Junior Firefighting Camp at the Beverly Hills Fire Station; Junior Police Academy at the Beverly Hills Police Station; Houdini’s Magic Camp at Hawthorne School, Tinkering School L.A. at La Cienega Community Center; Britwest Soccer Camps at Roxbury Park; or, Play to Your Health Camps at Roxbury Park. We’re sure you’ll find a camp your child will love and one that will fit in your schedule if you have a summer vacation planned or your just planning a stay-cation right here in your own city. You’ll find camps specializing in the performing arts, various sports, computer-coding, cheerleading, science and more. There truly is something for everyone.

In addition, a variety of aquatic activities are offered at the Beverly Hills High School Swim Gym, including swim lessons for all levels and ages, Swim Camp, Water Polo and Swim Team.

To review all summer camp and aquatic activity offerings, visit the City’s website at www.beverlyhills.org/bhrec or call 310-285-6810 to request a summer camp or aquatic activities brochure.
