City of Beverly Hills Celebrates 15th Annual Earth Day on April 15

Beverly Hills, CA – The 15th annual Earth Day in Beverly Hills will feature an exciting array of “earthy” activities including energy-saving displays, paper shredding, free compost and electric vehicles!

On Sunday April 15, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Earth enthusiasts will be able to choose from an array of free, family-friendly activities, while doing their weekly shopping at the Beverly Hills Farmers’ Market. Events and activities include:

- Electric vehicle charging information
- Paper shredding (no limit)
- Earth Day crafts and stories, hosted by the Community Services Department
- Free 20-pound bags of compost, while supplies last
- Eyeglass recycling
- Pet adoptions and grooming
- The mobile earthquake simulator AKA the Quake Cottage. Are you prepared?
- Native gardening advice
- Solar energy vendors
- Raffle prizes and more!

The Beverly Hills Farmers’ Market is located on Civic Center Drive and Third Street in Beverly Hills. Free parking is available in the Civic Center parking garage at 450 N. Rexford Drive. For more information, contact the City of Beverly Hills’ Public Works Services Department at (310) 285-2467 or go to www.beverlyhills.org/earthday.
