The Tom Nolan Band has been entertaining audiences since the mid-90s with classic soul, blues, jazz and their own mix of funky music. The Tom Nolan Band is a grass roots effort that has taken hold. It started in a garage, was cultivated in clubs, and has moved on to the festival stage. Their mission is to spread positive energy and make people dance. Tom says, "We're all about fun and community. We want people to forget their troubles, break a sweat and get in the groove. "

Tom Nolan sings lead, and plays harmonica and percussion and his band includes: David Hoyt, vocals and guitar; Jade Capri vocals and tambourine; Victor Cisneros and Jackie Klimek play saxophone; Evan Avery plays trumpet; Jose Arellano plays trombone; Scott Hitchings, vocals and keyboard; David Brown, vocals and plays bass; and Eric Meeks plays drums.

Besides being a songwriter and band leader, Tom is an actor and educator. He has appeared in twenty films, two television series, and on stage in New York and Los Angeles.
