Fire Accreditation Community Meeting Set for June 25

Beverly Hills, CA (June 12, 2019) – As part of its accreditation by the Center for Public Safety Excellence (CPSE), the Beverly Hills Fire Department is holding a community stakeholder meeting on Tuesday, June 25 at 6:00 p.m. at Greystone Mansion & Gardens, 905 Loma Vista Drive. Light refreshments will be served.

The meeting will focus on the Fire Department's strategic plan, an important component of the accreditation process. The Fire Department is interested in understanding the community's expectations and developing a strategic plan to implement those expectations.

Founded in 1986, CPSE is an international technical non-profit organization that awards accreditation to fire and emergency service agencies. Currently, there are 266 accredited agencies, nationwide.

For more information and to RSVP please email mliongson@beverlyhills.org or call the Fire Department at (310) 281-2700.
