Music in the Mansion Concert Series brings the Finest in Solo and Chamber Music

Beverly Hills, Calif. – Music in the Mansion Concert Series features the Los Angeles Ensemble on Sunday, March 18 at 2:00 p.m. at Greystone Mansion & Gardens: The Doheny Estate, 905 Loma Vista Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90210. Music in the Mansion Concert Series brings the finest in solo and chamber music entertainment every month, from January through June to the intimate setting of Greystone Mansion in Beverly Hills. The Ensemble is composed of four talented musicians -- Sung Chang on Piano, Joanna Lee on violin, Tanner Menees on Viola, and Bingxia Lu on cello. To purchase tickets online, www.beverlyhills.org/bhrec, or call 310-285-6850.

The Los Angeles Ensemble was awarded first prize at the International Music Competition Grand Prize Virtuoso in London and fourth prize at the Schoenfeld International String Competition in Harbin, China. Los Angeles Ensemble is active in the greater Los Angeles area, performing regularly in concert series such as L'Ermitage Foundation and Ruthmere Museum as well as in intimate house concert settings.

These four youthful musicians have a passion for untethered creativity and they pride themselves in diverse programming, taking full advantage of versatility as an ensemble. They believe that the piano quartet is an inherently unique ensemble in that all four voices are soloistic, yet, these four soloists also blend to communicate a story together. In that spirit, the group both demonstrates total teamwork and capitalizes on huge range of expression. Beyond playing quartets, Los Angeles Ensemble also offers their programming variety to their audiences by including literature for solo, duo and trio formations. Special projects have also featured contemporary music, film music and narration.

Music in the Mansion Concert Series is sponsored by the City of Beverly Hills Community Service Department, and has been bringing the finest performances in solo and chamber music entertainment since 1994 to Greystone Mansion.
