Meeting Highlights

- Culture Crawls
  - Work with media partners: BH Courier, Meredith, Extra, Time Inc., People, and others
  - They had reached out to the Wallis Annenberg for event space, but due to programming commitments the Wallis was not available

City Council Liaison Direction:
  - City Council Liaisons appreciated the proposal and directed that additional information would need to be confirmed before the City could provide formal support. The proposal would need to be further developed to include, reserved event spaces, confirmed funding sources and a more well-developed film/tech program.

3) Request from the Consulate of Israel in Los Angeles to showcase the Israeli Flag on City Hall in Honor of Israel's Independence Day

Staff provided the Council Liaisons with an informational item regarding the request from the Consulate of Israel to display the Israeli flag in commemoration of their Independence Day (Yom HaAtzmaut).

Staff provided the City Council Liaisons with information that included:
  - Displaying the Israeli flag could be considered based on the City’s approved Joint Declaration with the State of Israel
  - The agreement supports cultural exchange and cooperation
  - As proposed, the City could provide a special lighted ‘gobo’ (lighted fixture) to display both the United States and Israeli ‘friendship’ flags on City Hall (Crescent side).
  - This would be similar to other lighted displays such as BOLD and Vanity Fair.

City Council Liaison Direction:
  - They approved the request and indicated that the lighted display should be on the north side of the building, along North Santa Monica Boulevard.
