

A Special Feature at the May 2018 artSHOW
Sublime Perspectives: Deep & Wide Landscapes

Yoshiko Yamamoto is a traditional linocut printmaker from Japan whose current work celebrates west coast vistas. Space 228

Carol Steinberg is a plein air painter and teacher. Space 123

Acrylic painter Donald Archer pulls apart and throws together views from California highways, as though a technicolor earthquake had just left its mark. Space 136

Oil painter Patrick Dennis of Cambria renders a seemingly infinite connection between the sea and land of the central California coast. Space 219

Chris Blunkell, from England, paints the untrammelled hills of Palm Springs and Coachella Valley with acrylic and charcoal. Space 229