A Special Feature at the May 2018 artSHOW

Sublime Perspectives: Deep & Wide Landscapes

Yoshiko Yamamoto is a traditional linocut printmaker from Japan who presents current work celebrating west coast vistas. Space 228

Carol Steinberg is a plein air painter and teacher. Space 123

Oil painter Patrick Dennis of Cambria renders a seemingly infinite connection between the sea and land of the central California coast. Space 219

Acrylic painter Donald Archer pulls apart and throws together views from California highways, as though a technicolored earthquake had just left its mark. Space 136

Chris Blunkell, from England, paints the untrammeled hills of Palm Springs and Coachella Valley with acrylic and charcoal. Space 229