Classics in the Courtyard Returns to Greystone Mansion & Gardens
Theatre 40 Presents "A Phoenix Too Frequent" on August 14

Beverly Hills, Calif. - On Sunday, August 14 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Greystone Mansion & Gardens: The Doheny Estate, the City of Beverly Hills and Theatre 40 present a reading of Christopher Fry's romantic comedy, "A Phoenix Too Frequent". Set in ancient Rome, a widow plans to starve herself to join her husband in death until a soldier guarding the husband's tomb charms her back into living.

Prior to the production, the first floor of the mansion will be open from 5:00 to 5:45 p.m. for self-guided tours, followed by the performance in the inner courtyard of Greystone Mansion at 6 p.m. Tickets are $15 for general admission and $12 for seniors and students. Advanced registration is recommended. Purchase tickets online at www.beverlyhills.org/BHRegOnline. For information, call 310-285-6830.

The Greystone Mansion courtyard is an elegant, storied and historic place with natural acoustics and excellent ambience making it a perfect setting for Theatre 40's performance.
