NEXT NIGHT Block Party Returns to S. Beverly Dr. Sept. 23 Community Event Features Entertainment, Food and Fun

Beverly Hills, CA – Following an exciting summer for Beverly Hills nightlife, NEXT NIGHT returns this fall—a block party celebrating the City’s community: the people, the food, the entertainment and the businesses.

The 200 block of South Beverly Drive will once again be “pedestrian only” for an even bigger community event, featuring live bands and DJs, food trucks, restaurant specials, a beer & wine garden, and pop-up shops. This specially curated evening will showcase a mix of local artists and businesses, with an emphasis on goods crafted right here in Beverly Hills. Attendees of last year’s event will be enchanted by NEXT NIGHT’s development, featuring many more exceptional attractions and memorable experiences.

NEXT NIGHT will be open from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. Sept. 23 and stretches from Charleville Boulevard to Gregory Way along S. Beverly Drive. Attendance is free and suitable for all ages. Well behaved and leashed dogs are welcome!

Leave your cars at home and walk, bike or grab an Uber/Lyft and join your friends for a special evening. There's a designated Uber/Lyft drop off point near Gregory Way, at the southern end of the 200 block of Beverly Drive. However, parking is available at the City parking garages located at 216 S. Beverly Drive and 242 N. Beverly Drive.

NEXT NIGHT is spearheaded by Next Beverly Hills, a committee of young leaders appointed by the mayor and the City Council to engage residents through innovative initiatives that address their lifestyles, economic and civic needs. For more information on the committee, go to www.beverlyhills.org/nextbeverlyhills.
