THEATER: All the Moving Parts features Ted Chapin

Ted Chapin, one of the prime movers of Broadway, joins us for this episode of “THEATER: All the Moving Parts”, hosted by Patrick Pacheco. As President and Chief Creative Officer of The Rodgers and Hammerstein Organization, Mr. Chapin has for decades been custodian of some of the beloved shows and songs in musical theater like “Sound of Music”, “King & I” and “South Pacific”.

Without his approval, Daniel Fish’s subversive revival of “Oklahoma!” would never have reached Broadway and won the Tony award. Chapin talks about the process and the art of giving approval to 250 Rogers & Hammerstein productions a year.
