SUBJECT: Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA)

ATTACHMENT: 1. Summary Memo from David Turch & Associates

A verbal presentation will be provided by Jamie Jones from David Turch & Associates of the attached memo. After discussion of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) the Liaisons may recommend the following actions:

1) Support the proposed narrow compromise currently under consideration in Washington, D.C.;
2) Oppose the proposed narrow compromise currently under consideration in Washington, D.C.;
3) Remain neutral; or
4) Provide other direction to City staff.

Should the Liaisons wish to take a position on this item, it would require approval of the City Council at the February 20, 2018 Study Session as this is not part of the City’s adopted Legislative Platform.
Congessional Republican and Democratic leaders are in the midst of negotiations amongst themselves and with the White House on a solution for undocumented immigrants who entered the United States as minors, also known as “dreamers.” Last September, President Trump ordered the termination of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) benefits on March 5, 2018, leaving Congress scrambling to find a DACA fix before the upcoming deadline.

Democratic strategy to link a DACA agreement to a short- or long-term FY 2018 budget deal collapsed following a three-day government shutdown last month. Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-NY) and House Democratic Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-CA) are now dependent upon a commitment by Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY) to schedule floor time on immigration legislation, including DACA, following enactment of another continuing resolution (CR) keeping the federal government afloat beyond February 8.

Earlier today, Senate leaders announced a budget deal to raise defense and non-defense spending caps by nearly $300 billion over two-years (FY 2018 and FY 2019) while providing emergency disaster relief funding for hurricane and wildfire victims along with spending for a host of important Democratic priorities. This spending package, should it pass congressional muster, sets the stage for Senate floor action on immigration beginning as early as this week. The challenge for Democrats, particularly in the House, is that Speaker Paul Ryan (R-WI), unlike his Senate counterpart, has refused thus far to issue of commitment to raise the DACA issue following the enactment of another short-term spending resolution.

While negotiations and even positions seem rather fluid, here is where things stand as of February 7:

White House Position

As recently as this week, President Trump has threatened a government shutdown if Congress fails to support his immigration plan. The President has offered an immigration proposal that would provide a permanent solution to DACA recipients while fundamentally altering our legal immigration system. President Trump has threatened to veto any immigration legislation that fails to meet the four main pillars of his immigration plan:

1. Legalization with a citizenship track for 1.8 million “dreamers,” which more than doubles the number of registered DACA recipients;

2. The establishment of a “trust fund” for a border wall with $25 billion in authorized and appropriated funds that is walled off from future congressional rescissions;
3. The elimination of “chain migration” – otherwise known as family reunification – that currently allows US citizens to file immigrant petitions for their parents, siblings and adult children with a transition to a “merit” based immigration system; and

4. The termination of the diversity visa lottery program that offers 50,000 green cards annually to immigrants from countries with low admission rates to the United States.

Senate Position

Democratic senators are asking for a “narrow” compromise involving a permanent solution for DACA recipients coupled with funding for enhanced border security. Senator Dick Durbin (D-IL), the lead Democratic Senate negotiator on DACA, has publicly stated that a broad immigration deal is not possible now and Congress and the White House should focus on a more narrow solution that can gain enough votes to pass the Senate and House.

Along those lines, Senators Chris Coons (D-DE) and John McCain (R-AZ) introduced bipartisan legislation, S.2367, the Uniting and Securing America (USA) Act, on February 5 that provides long-term security for dreamers extending legalization to young, undocumented immigrants who have lived in the United States since 2013 (DACA’s cut-off is 2007). The Coons/McCain bill, moreover, would direct the Department of Homeland Security to formulate a plan that would achieve “operational control” of our border by 2020. While not calling for a border wall, S.2367 does not preclude one either. President Trump opposes this legislation as well as its companion bill (H.R. 4796) in the House.

House Positions

Representatives Will Hurd (R-TX), who represents a district with an 800 mile border with Mexico, and Pete Aguilar (D-CA), who represents a district in San Bernardino County, introduced H.R. 4796, bipartisan legislation with 54 cosponsors evenly split along party lines. As mentioned above, the Hurd/Aguilar bill was introduced in the Senate by Senators Coons and McCain last week. Like its counterpart in the Senate, H.R. 4796 provides permanent legal status for DACA recipients as well as covers undocumented minors who have entered the United States since 2013. The bill calls for smart border security measures to gain operational control of our borders by 2020. Reps. Hurd and Aguilar argue that their “USA Act” is a targeted approach that can pass the House and Senate.

Speaker Paul Ryan is on record saying that he will only consider on the House floor immigration legislation that has the President’s support. The challenge for Ryan is not only Trump’s hard line position but the divisions within his own GOP Conference who are split on how best to proceed with a DACA/immigration fix. Freedom Caucus members, representing the more conservative wing of the GOP, opposes what they call “amnesty” for DACA recipients and will only support an attenuated legalization plan that appropriates $30 billion for a border wall and other border security measures while significantly reducing legal immigration to the United States.

Whether Speaker Ryan and his Republican colleagues can reach a deal with Democrats will depend to a large extent on President Trump’s position. As Senator Durbin has proclaimed, a DACA solution is in the hands of the President.

Re: AB 1775 (Muratsuchi) State lands: leasing: oil and gas

Introduction and Background
In January 2018, President Trump’s Department of the Interior announced that they are planning to allow new oil and gas drilling leases in federal waters. Six of the planned leases are off the California coast. While the leases would be offered in federal waters, which begin three miles offshore and extend 200 miles off the coast, oil and natural gas producers would need some method to transport the oil and gas onto the shore, on California soil.

AB 1775 (Muratsuchi) would prohibit the State Lands Commission or local trustee of granted public trust lands from entering into a new lease or other conveyance, or renewing, extending, or modifying a new lease, that would authorize new or additional exploration, development, or production of oil or natural gas on California State lands that would result in the increase of oil or natural gas production from federal waters, except in certain circumstances.

These excepted circumstances are:

- The President of the United States finds a severe energy supply interruption and has ordered distribution of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve, the Governor finds that the energy resources will contribute to the alleviation of that interruption, and the Legislature subsequently acts to amend this chapter.
- The Commission determines that the oil or gas deposits are being drained by means of producing wells upon adjacent federal lands and the lease or other conveyance is in the best interest of the state.

The prohibitions in AB 1775 (Muratsuchi) would increase the costs associated with utilizing the offshore drilling rights by preventing a pipeline to the shore. Similar local ordinances have proven to be an effective strategy for California cities to reduce the amount of offshore drilling near their jurisdictions. While these ordinances have been the subject of legal challenges in the past, the courts have historically ruled in favor of local governments’ ability to control land use within their jurisdictions.

There is a companion bill in the Senate, SB 834 (Jackson and Lara), which is substantially similar.
Status of Legislation
AB 1775 (Muratsuchi) was referred to the Assembly Committee on Natural Resources. The Senate companion bill, SB 834 (Jackson and Lara), was referred to the Senate Natural Resources and Water Committee. Neither bill has been set for hearing yet.

Support and Opposition
There is currently no formal support or opposition registered for this bill.

California Natural Resources Secretary Issues Statement Opposing Federal Proposal to Renew Offshore Oil and Gas Development

SACRAMENTO – California Secretary for Natural Resources John Laird submitted formal comments today on a federal proposal to renew offshore oil and gas development along the West Coast and issued the following statement:

“IT'S NO SURPRISE THAT MANY CALIFORNIANS ARE ALARMED BY A RECENT U.S. DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR PROPOSAL TO OPEN OUR COASTAL WATERS TO OIL AND GAS EXPLORATION AND PRODUCTION. CALIFORNIANS CARE DEEPLY ABOUT OUR 1,100-MILE COASTLINE AND PUBLIC BEACHES, WHICH DRAW MILLIONS OF VISITORS A YEAR. PUBLIC OPPOSITION TO OFFSHORE DRILLING HAS STEADILY INCREASED IN CALIFORNIA, AND A POLL BY THE PUBLIC POLICY INSTITUTE OF CALIFORNIA IN JULY SHOWED IT IS AT AN ALL-TIME HIGH.

THERE IS A REASON NO NEW OFFSHORE OIL AND GAS LEASES HAVE BEEN ALLOWED IN CALIFORNIA SINCE THE 1969 SPILL OFF THE COAST OF SANTA BARBARA. CALIFORNIANS SAW THAT DEVASTATION AND ACTED LOCALLY TO ENSURE THE PUBLIC WOULD HAVE A VOICE IN LOCAL ZONING FOR FUTURE ONSHORE FACILITIES RELATED TO OFFSHORE DRILLING.

"TO MEET OUR LONG-TERM ENERGY NEEDS, CALIFORNIANS HAVE CHosen CLEAN, RENEWABLE ENERGY AND LOW CARBON TRANSPORTATION FUELS AND TECHNOLOGIES. WE URGE THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT TO WITHDRAW OUR STATE FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION FOR RENEWED OFFSHORE OIL AND GAS DEVELOPMENT."

Laird’s formal comments submitted to the U.S. Bureau of Ocean Energy Management on behalf of the Ocean Protection Council are available here. A resolution in opposition to the proposal by the Ocean Protection Council is available here.

An op-ed on the topic by Secretary Laird published by The Sacramento Bee is available here.

California Says Will Block Crude Oil From Trump Offshore Drilling Plan
Feb. 7, 2018, at 2:04 p.m.

By Sharon Bernstein
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (Reuters) - California will block the transportation through its state of petroleum from new offshore oil rigs, officials told Reuters on Wednesday, a move meant to hobble the Trump administration's effort to vastly expand drilling in U.S. federal waters.

California’s plan to deny pipeline permits for transporting oil from new leases off the Pacific Coast is the most forceful step yet by coastal states trying to halt the biggest proposed expansion in decades of federal oil and gas leasing.

Officials in Florida, North and South Carolina, Delaware and Washington, have also warned drilling could despoil beaches, harm wildlife and hurt lucrative tourism industries.

"I am resolved that not a single drop from Trump's new oil plan ever makes landfall in California," Lt. Governor Gavin Newsom, chair of the State Lands Commission and a Democratic candidate for governor, said in an emailed statement.

The commission sent a letter on Wednesday to the U.S. Interior Department's Bureau of Ocean Energy Management (BOEM) urging the bureau's program manager Kelly Hammerle to withdraw the draft proposal, saying the public did not have an adequate opportunity to provide input on the plan.

"It is certain that the state would not approve new pipelines or allow use of existing pipelines to transport oil from new leases onshore," the commission wrote in the letter seen by Reuters.

California has clashed repeatedly with President Donald Trump's administration over a range of other issues since last year, from climate change to automobile efficiency standards to immigration.

The Interior Department last month announced its proposal to open nearly all U.S. offshore waters to oil and gas drilling, sparking protests from coastal states, environmentalists and the tourism industry.

Governors from nearly every U.S. coastal state except Alaska and Maine expressed opposition, and even Alaska's governor requested sensitive areas be removed.
The proposal also comes amid low U.S. oil industry demand for new offshore leases, as drillers focus on cheaper and highly-productive wells onshore that have pushed U.S. production over 10 millions barrels per day for the first time since 1970.

Heather Swift, spokeswoman for Secretary of the Interior Ryan Zinke, said developing the five-year plan for offshore oil and gas leases is "a very open and public process."

"Secretary Zinke looks forward to meeting with more Governors and other coastal representatives who want to discuss the draft program," she said, adding the bureau "has planned 23 public meetings, in our coastal states, to secure feedback directly from citizens."

In an interview on Tuesday, William Brown, the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management's chief environmental officer, said state input is taken seriously, and has resulted in past drilling plans being scaled back. He said the approval process would take two years and include an environmental review.

PROTESTS
Trump has said more offshore drilling would boost the U.S. economy and national security by reducing reliance on imported oil.

Opponents of offshore drilling have complained that Congress has passed no new safety standards since BP Plc's Deepwater Horizon explosion and oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico in 2010. It took months to stop that leak, which became the largest oil spill in American history, despoiling the environment of Gulf Coast states and causing billions of dollars in economic damage.

Offshore drilling has been restricted in California since a 1969 oil spill off the coast of Santa Barbara. In 2015, another spill in Santa Barbara County sent as much as 2,400 barrels of oil (101,000 gallons or 382,000 liters) onto the coast and into the Pacific, leaving slicks that stretched over nine miles (14 km).

Major oil companies, like Chevron Corp, have long since abandoned their efforts in California's offshore region, despite its estimated 250 million barrels of proven oil reserves, due in part to legislative and political hurdles and easier prospects elsewhere. Chevron gave away the U.S. Geological Survey seismic data on offshore California and other parts of the U.S. West Coast for research use in 2005, deeming it no longer commercially useful.

Neal Kirby, a spokesman for the Independent Petroleum Association of America, which represents small and mid-sized drilling companies, said his members support the administration's drilling plan.

But, he said that the industry was primarily interested in the Eastern Gulf of Mexico, a region close to existing oil infrastructure and highly-productive fields. He said if California bars oil from passing through pipelines, companies would be even less likely to seek new offshore leases there.

A number of other states have asked the Interior Department to exempt them from the drilling plan. So far, Secretary Zinke has said he would exempt Florida, which borders the Eastern Gulf and the Southeastern Atlantic, to protect its tourism industry and he has promised to hold discussions with other states that have expressed concerns.

On Jan. 24, U.S. lawmakers from Florida sent Zinke a letter pressing him to honor his pledge, noting that the acting chief of the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management had said Florida's coast is "still under consideration for offshore drilling."

Environmentalists and some elected officials plan to protest the drilling plan at a public meeting on Thursday in Sacramento.

4. Tacking Back Our Communities Fact Sheet on AB 109, Proposition 47 and Proposition 57

INTRODUCTION

The “Reducing Crime and Keeping California Safe Act of 2018” initiative (“Act”) is a response to the unintended consequences of Proposition 47 and 57 and other recent public safety reform measures. As filed with the state, this Act states it will “Reform the parole system so violent felons are not released early from prison, strengthen oversight of post release community supervision and tighten penalties for violations of terms of post release community supervision; reform theft laws to restore accountability for serial thieves and organized theft rings; and expand DNA collection from persons convicted of drug, theft and domestic violence related crimes to help solve violent crimes and exonerate the innocent.

This item is to request the Legislative/Lobby Liaisons consider taking a position on this Act.

DISCUSSION

Since 2014, California has had a larger increase in violent crime than the rest of the United States. Since 2013, violent crime in Los Angeles has increased 69.5%. Additionally, violent crime in Sacramento rose faster during the first six months of 2015 than in any of the 25 largest United States cities tracked by the FBI.

The changes that have been enacted by AB 109, Proposition 47, and Proposition 57 have created a situation where violent and career criminals are serving little to no prison time, which has eroded the safety of almost every community in California. The California criminal justice system currently considers the following crimes as “non-violent,” and offenders convicted of violating such laws are able to avoid appropriate prison sentences:

- Domestic violence
• Rape;
• Corporal injury to a child;
• Hate crime causing physical injury; and
• Assault with a deadly weapon

In addition, the State legislative changes that have occurred during the past several years have created an environment in California where most property crimes are now considered misdemeanors. As a result, between 2014 and 2016, California had the 2nd highest increase in theft and property crimes in the United States, while most states have seen a steady decline. According to the California Department of Justice, the value of property stolen in 2015 was $2.5 billion, an increase of 13 percent since 2014. This is the largest single-year increase in the last ten years.

Furthermore, court imposed prison sentences for serious violent crimes can now be uniformly reduced by the State, thereby allowing career criminals the opportunity to avoid serving an adequate amount of jail time. The negative impacts from these State legislative changes has been far reaching, and all throughout California, crime rates and the number of victims are skyrocketing.

This Act will:

• Reclassify crimes that under Proposition 57 qualify as “non-violent” crimes. This includes reclassifying crimes such as rape of an unconscious person, sex trafficking of a child, and domestic violence as “violent” and would prevent the early release of inmates convicted of these crimes;
• Reform the parole system to stop the early release of violent felons, expand parolee oversight, and strengthen penalties for parole violations;
• Reform theft laws to restore accountability for serial thieves and organized theft gangs; and
• Reinstate DNA collection for certain misdemeanors. This would include those convicted of drug, theft, domestic violence and other serious crimes. DNA collection is an essential investigative tool for solving cold cases including rape and murder. It is also important to exonerate those wrongly accused.

Additionally, this Act will close a loophole in the state parole system that was created by AB 109. This law eliminated a return to prison for parole violators. This contributed directly to the deadly shooting of Whitter Police Officer Keith Boyer in February 2017. The accused had violated his parole five times, and had only served a few days in the Los Angeles County jail for each violation. This Act will require a mandatory court hearing for anyone who is charged with a third violation of parole.

Organizations that support the Act include the California Peace Officers’ Association, California Police Chiefs Association and California State Sheriffs’ Association.
RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends that the Legislative/Lobby Liaison Committee consider taking a position on “Reducing Crime and Keeping California Safe Act of 2018”. The Liaisons may consider supporting this Act as the City’s current Legislative Platform does include the following statement:

Support efforts to reverse all legislation, including AB 109, that created “early release” for low-risk, serious and violent offenders.

Staff seeks Liaison approval for a Resolution in support of Reducing Crime and Keeping California Safe Act of 2018 and for a letter of support. Should this be approved by the Liaisons, then it will be placed on the March 6, 2018 City Council Agenda as either a “C” item for Study Session or on consent calendar for the Formal Session.

An Initiative for Public Safety

VIOLENT CRIME

- Expands the list of violent crimes for which early release is not an option
- Under current law, rape of an unconscious person, trafficking a child for sex, assault of a peace officer, felony domestic violence and other similar crimes are not classified as "violent felonies" — making criminals convicted of these crimes eligible for early release

DNA COLLECTION

California's DNA database gets fewer hits due to Prop. 47 (KCRA)

- Reinstates DNA collection for certain crimes that were reduced to misdemeanors as part of Proposition 47
- Multiple studies have shown that DNA collected from theft and drug crimes has helped solve other violent crimes, including robbery, rape and murder. Since passage of Prop. 47, cold case hits have dropped over 2,000, with more than 450 of those hits connected to violent crimes
SERIAL THEFT

An explosion of California property crimes — due to Prop. 47 (San Francisco Chronicle)

- Revises the theft threshold by adding a felony for serial theft — when a person is caught for the 3rd time stealing with a value of $250
- Prop. 47 changed the dollar threshold for theft to be considered a felony — from $450 to $950. As a result, there has been an explosion of serial theft and an inability of law enforcement to prosecute these crimes effectively. Theft has increased by 12% to 25%, with losses of a billion dollars since the law was passed.

PAROLE VIOLATIONS

- Requires the Board of Parole Hearings to consider an inmate’s entire criminal history when deciding parole, not just his most recent commitment offense; and requires a mandatory hearing to determine whether parole should be revoked for any parolee who violates the terms of his parole for the third time
- AB 109 bases parole solely on an offender’s commitment offense, resulting in the release of inmates with serious and violent criminal histories. Moreover, parolees who repeatedly violate the terms of their parole currently face few consequences, allowing them to remain on the street

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following circulating title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

(17-0044.) RESTRICTS PAROLE FOR NON-VIOLENT OFFENDERS. AUTHORIZES FELONY SENTENCES FOR CERTAIN OFFENSES CURRENTLY TREATED ONLY AS MISDEMEANORS. INITIATIVE STATUTE.

This measure will

A. Reform the parole system so violent felons are not released early from prison, strengthen oversight of post release community supervision and tighten penalties for violations of terms of post release community supervision;
B. Reform theft laws to restore accountability for serial thieves and organized theft rings; and
C. Expand DNA collection from persons convicted of drug, theft and domestic violence related crimes to help solve violent crimes and exonerate the innocent.

This measure will:

1. Collecting DNA from criminals is essential to solving violent crimes. Over 450 violent crimes including murder, rape and robbery have gone unsolved because DNA is being collected from fewer criminals.
2. DNA collected in 2015 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2016 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
3. DNA collected in 2015 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2016 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
4. DNA collected in 2017 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2018 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
5. DNA collected in 2019 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2020 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
6. DNA collected in 2021 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2022 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
7. DNA collected in 2023 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2024 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
8. DNA collected in 2025 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2026 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
9. DNA collected in 2027 from a convicted child molester solved the rape-murder of a two-year-old baby. DNA collected in 2028 from an innocent suspect cleared the cold case of a 1975 rape.
10. Nothing in this act is intended to affect the ability of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to award educational and merit credits.

This measure will enforce the rule of law by increasing penalties for violent crimes.

1. Recent changes to California law allow individuals convicted of certain repeat violent crimes to avoid serving jail time or parole supervision for new crimes.
2. As a result, the crime of murder has increased by 8% in California. Violent crime in Sacramento rose faster during the first six months of 2018 than in any of the 25 largest U.S. cities tracked by the FBI.
3. In 2020, violent crime in California has increased by 9.5%. In 2021, violent crime in California has increased by 10.5%
4. In 2022, violent crime in California has increased by 11.5%
5. In 2023, violent crime in California has increased by 12.5%
6. In 2024, violent crime in California has increased by 13.5%
7. In 2025, violent crime in California has increased by 14.5%

This measure will

1. Protecting every person in our state, including our most vulnerable children, from violent crime is of the utmost importance. Murderers, rapists, child molesters and other violent criminals should not be released early from prison.
2. Since 2014, California has had a larger increase in violent crime than the rest of the United States. Since 2015, violent crime in Los Angeles has increased by 9.5%. Violent crime in Sacramento rose faster during the first six months of 2018 than in any of the 25 largest U.S. cities tracked by the FBI.
3. In 2020, violent crime in California has increased by 9.5%. In 2021, violent crime in California has increased by 10.5%
4. In 2022, violent crime in California has increased by 11.5%
5. In 2023, violent crime in California has increased by 12.5%
6. In 2024, violent crime in California has increased by 13.5%
7. In 2025, violent crime in California has increased by 14.5%

This measure will

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following circulating title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

(17-0044.) RESTRICTS PAROLE FOR NON-VIOLENT OFFENDERS. AUTHORIZES FELONY SENTENCES FOR CERTAIN OFFENSES CURRENTLY TREATED ONLY AS MISDEMEANORS. INITIATIVE STATUTE. Imposes restrictions on parole program for non-violent offenders who have completed the full term for their primary offense. Expands list of offenses that disqualify an inmate from this parole program. Changes standards and requirements governing parole decisions under this program. Authorizes felony charges for specified theft crimes currently dischargeable only as misdemeanors, including some theft crimes where the value is between $250 and $950. Requires persons convicted of specified misdemeanors to submit to collection of DNA samples for state database. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local government: Increased state and local correctional costs likely in the tens of millions of dollars annually, primarily related to increases in penalties for certain theft-related crimes and the changes to nonviolent offender release consideration process. Increased state and local court-related costs of around a few million dollars annually related to processing probation revocations and additional felony theft filings. Increased state and local law enforcement costs not likely to exceed a couple million dollars annually related to collecting and processing DNA samples from additional offenders.

AB 109

AB 109 transferred nearly 45,000 felons from the State prison system to local jail facilities. However, it is important to note that local jails were not designed to house criminals on a long-term basis. Rather, facilities built in local jurisdictions were intended to detain individuals on a short-term basis for minor infractions or while awaiting trial.

The approval of AB 109 has resulted in the ongoing transference of criminals that should be serving State prison sentences for felony convictions back to local jail facilities. However, local jail facilities were never designed to house violent criminals for extended periods of time, and were already overcrowded before AB 109 was approved. Given the need for local jurisdictions to now house violent felons, AB 109 has resulted in the release of tens of thousands of lower-level convicted criminals back into our community.

Ultimately, as a result of AB 109, while the State prison population has decreased, local jail facilities have seen an increase in the number inmates being incarcerated, resulting in lower-level criminals being released early. This has had a direct impact on rising property crime rates throughout the State.

PROP 47

Proposition 47, called The Safe Neighborhoods and Schools Act, was approved by 60% of California voters in 2014. However, instead of keeping our neighborhoods and schools safe, approval of Proposition 47 actually served to reclassify and downgrade a number of serious crimes from felonies to misdemeanors.

Drug possession, repeated shoplifting, forging checks, gun theft, and possession of date-rape drugs - all of which were felonies before Proposition 47 was approved - are now classified as misdemeanors.

The effects of Proposition 47 have been far reaching. Today, a criminal can steal as much and as many times as they like, and so long as the value of what is stolen during each theft is less than $950, the violation is considered a misdemeanor. In addition, the possession of any illegal drug - including cocaine, heroin, and methamphetamine - has been reclassified as a misdemeanor violation, which has decimated the legal system’s ability to compel addicts to enter drug rehabilitation programs.

POSSESSION OF DRUGS = MISDEMEANOR INFRACTION
- Possession of Methamphetamine
- Possession of Cocaine
- Possession of Heroin
- Possession of other opiates

STEAL $950 OR LESS = MISDEMEANOR INFRACTION
- Theft / Theft: With A Prior
- Shoplifting
- Forgery / Fraud / Bad Checks
- Receiving Stolen Property

WHAT’S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A MISDEMEANOR AND A FELONY?

MISDEMEANOR
- Misdemeanors are minor violations that must be observed by a law enforcement official in order for action to be taken.
- Penalty is up to one year in jail, but most often results in probation with no jail time.
- Criminals arrested for misdemeanor crime violations are typically released immediately with a citation to appear in court at a later date.

FELONY
- Felonies are the most serious kind of crime.
- Penalty used to be jail time in State prison for more than one year.
- Today, because of AB 109, some criminals with serious felony violations serve time in local jail facilities.

PROP 47 REDUCED ACCOUNTABILITY FOR THOSE WHO COMMIT CRIME.
PROP 57

Proposition 57, called The Public Safety and Rehabilitation Act, was approved by 65% of California voters in 2016. According to the non-partisan Legislative Analyst Office, Proposition 57 allows the State to provide for the early release of up to 30,000 criminals convicted of “non-violent” felonies. Among the crimes that are classified by the State as “non-violent” include:

- Rape by intoxication
- Rape of an unconscious person
- Human trafficking involving sex act with minors
- Drive-by shooting
- Assault with a deadly weapon
- Hate crime causing physical injury
- Corporal injury to a child
- Rape of an unconscious person
- Human trafficking involving sex act with minors
- Drive-by shooting

Other adverse public safety impacts that were authorized by Proposition 57 include:

- The State Department of Corrections has been given the unlimited authority to grant credits to all criminals - regardless of the nature of their crime - which would facilitate any criminal’s early release from State prison.
- Criminals who commit multiple crimes against multiple victims will be eligible for release at the same time as offenders who only committed a single crime against a single victim.
- Repeat criminals will be eligible for release after the same period of incarceration as first time offenders.

Re: SB 460 (de León) Communications: Broadband Internet Access Service.

Introduction and Background

Senator de León introduced SB 460, which would prohibit internet service providers (ISPs) from engaging in certain activities that violate the principles of “net neutrality.” The bill is a response to the Federal Communications Commission’s (FCC) decision to repeal their “net neutrality rules” in December of 2017. A prior version of the bill had granted regulatory authority to the California Public Utilities Commission; however, after concerns with expanding CPUC regulatory authority were expressed in committee, those provisions were stricken from the bill. The bill in its current form would allow consumers damaged by violations of the bill’s provisions to avail themselves of the enforcement mechanisms provided for under the Consumer Legal Remedies Act (CLRA), allowing them to sue for damages. SB 460 (de León) also prohibits state agencies from entering into a contract with an ISP unless they have certified, under penalty of perjury, not to violate the activities made unlawful by this bill.

Specifically, this bill would:

- Prohibit ISPs from engaging in the following activities:
  - Blocking lawful content.
  - Impairing or degrading lawful internet traffic.
  - Paid prioritization.
  - Unreasonably interfering or unreasonably disadvantaging a customer’s ability to select, access, or use broadband Internet access or lawful content.
  - Deceptive marketing that misrepresents the treatment of internet traffic or content to its customers.
  - Advertising for sale or selling broadband Internet access services without prominently disclosing all aspects of said services advertised, offered, or sold.

- Make available the procedures and remedies laid out in the CLRA and also makes clear that it would not preclude enforcement of the Unfair Competition Law and the False Advertising Law.

- Allow the following entities to prosecute violations of the bill’s provisions under the Unfair Competition Law:
  - The Attorney General
  - A district attorney
  - A county counsel by agreement with the district attorney
  - A city attorney of a city with a population of more than 750,000
  - A city attorney in a city and county
Status of Legislation
SB 460 (de León) passed out of the Senate on January 29, 2018 by a margin of 21 Aye votes to 12 Noes with Senators Allen, Berryhill, Cannella, Galgiani, Glazer, Mendoza and Newman not casting votes. The bill is currently in the Assembly and has not yet been referred to a policy committee.

Support and Opposition
The author of the bill states that, “We cannot allow the profits and political interests of internet service providers to outweigh the public interest in a free and open Internet.” Proponents of the bill argue that with the repeal of the FCC’s net neutrality rules, it is incumbent upon the State to act to preserve a free and open Internet.

The bill is opposed by business groups and broadband internet service providers. They express concerns over the patchwork regulatory framework that the bill would create and argue that those regulations would slow down innovation. They also argue that the bill is inconsistent with the federal regulatory framework, is preempted by federal law, and will result in costly litigation.

Re: SB 562 (Lara) The Healthy California Act.

Introduction and Background

Last year, Senators Lara and Atkins introduced SB 562, which is co-authored by Senators Galgiani and Wiener and Assembly Member Bonta. SB 562 (Lara) would enact the Healthy California program to provide a universal single-payer health care system for all California residents. The bill would not become operable until the Secretary of Health and Human Services provides notice that they have determined that the Healthy California Trust Fund has revenues to fund the implementation of the bill.

Further, this bill would:

- Establish the Healthy California program, which would be governed by a nine-member unpaid board consisting of four members appointed by the Legislature and five members appointed by the Governor.
  - Four of those members would represent the following entities: a labor organization representing nurses, the general public, a labor organization, and the medical provider community.
- Establish a 22-member public advisory committee, to be appointed by the California Health and Human Services Agency.
- Make every California resident eligible to enroll in the program and prohibit any requirement for them to pay a premium.
- Permit a participating patient to receive health care services from any participating provider, dependent upon the willingness and availability of said provider.
- Permit any health care provider who is licensed and in good standing to participate in the Healthy California program.
- Require the Healthy California Board to adopt regulations related to the establishment of payment methodologies for covered services.

According to the Senate Appropriations Committee, cost estimates for this bill are subject to significant uncertainty, as there are numerous uncertainties about how enrollees, providers, employees, and the state would adapt to such a system. Rebuilding the California health care system from a multi-payer system into a single-payer, fee-for-service system would be an enormous and unprecedented change in a large health care market.

That said, total annual costs are projected to be about $400 billion per year at full enrollment. Existing federal, state, and local funding of about $200 billion are estimated to offset a portion of the total program cost. To utilize existing federal funds, the State would need to obtain a waiver from the federal government allowing funds that would otherwise go to the State of California, Californians, and health care providers through current programs such as Medicaid/Medi-Cal and the Affordable Care Act to instead be deposited into the Healthy California Trust Fund. Approximately $200 billion in additional tax revenues would be needed to fund the remainder of the total cost. Were this cost to be raised through a new payroll tax (with no cap on wages subject to the tax), the additional payroll tax rate would be about 15% of earned income. The fiscal analysis notes that the overall cost of those new tax revenues would be offset by reduced spending health care coverage by employers and employees, which is currently estimated to be about $100 - $150 billion per year, based on limited data.

Status of Legislation
SB 562 (Lara) passed out of the Senate on June 1, 2017 by a margin of 23 Aye votes to 14 Noes with Senators Hueso, Pan, and Roth not casting votes. The bill is currently in the Assembly and has not yet been referred to a policy committee.

Support and Opposition
The bill is sponsored by the California Nurses Association/National Nurses United. The author’s office points out that, even though the Affordable Care Act has made great progress in reducing the number of Californians who are uninsured, a lack of insurance is still a problem for immigrant communities, rural communities, working families and young people. According to the author’s office, approximately 3 million Californians remain uninsured due to cost or legal status. Proponents of the bill point to uncertainty in the future of the Affordable Care Act at the federal level as a primary reason for a state-based universal health care system.

The bill is opposed by business and health insurance groups who argue that the costs of a single payer system are unsustainable and that government-run health care is inherently less efficient and effective. Opponents also argue that the government bureaucracy created by this bill to manage the State’s health care system would ultimately result in significant job losses to the state. Other opponents argue that the State should focus on preserving the progress made under the Affordable Care Act given the uncertainty at the federal level.

After discussion of SB 946 (Lara) – Sidewalk Vendors, the Liaisons may recommend the following actions:

1) Support SB 946 (Lara);
2) Oppose SB 946 (Lara);
3) Remain neutral; or
4) Provide other direction to City staff.

As this item falls within the City’s adopted Legislative Platform due to Local Control, staff can proceed with any direction provided for letters of support/opposition.
Attachment 1
Introduction and Background
Senator Lara introduced SB 946, which would prohibit a local authority from regulating or prohibiting sidewalk vendors without first establishing a sidewalk vending licensing program. A local authority that elects to adopt a sidewalk vendor licensing program could adopt time, place, and manner restrictions on sidewalk vendors. However, those restrictions could not restrict the location of a vendor unless such a restriction is directly related to health, safety, or welfare concerns, nor could they unreasonably limit a sidewalk vendor to operating only in a designated neighborhood or area. Vendors who violate the standards and licensing requirements adopted by a local jurisdiction would be subject to an administrative fine.

A local jurisdiction’s vendor licensing program would not be allowed to do the following:
- Prohibit a licensed sidewalk vendor from selling food or merchandise in a park.
- Require a licensed vendor to obtain consent or approval from any nongovernmental entity prior to selling food or merchandise.
- Unreasonably restrict sidewalk vendors to operate only in certain neighborhoods or areas.
- Restrict the overall number of sidewalk vendor licenses.

Status of Legislation
SB 946 (Lara) is currently in the Senate and has not yet been referred to a policy committee.

Support and Opposition
The author’s office points to the economics benefits of street vending for both individuals and communities as a key reason why local jurisdictions should not be allowed to ban the practice outright nor impose onerous regulations. The author asserts that street vending is a way for poor people to make ends meet and is an opportunity for entrepreneurship and economic mobility.

There is currently no formal opposition to the bill.

Re: AB 1876 (Frazier) Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta: Delta Stewardship Council.

Introduction and Background
The Delta Stewardship Council was created by the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Reform Act of 2009. As originally established, the Stewardship Council consists of 7 members and is tasked with developing, adopting, and implementing a comprehensive management plan for the Delta. All state or local public agencies that propose to undertake certain actions within either the Delta or the Suisun Marsh are required to submit to the Council a specific written certification of the consistency of those actions with the comprehensive plan that the Council developed. The Act also established an appeal process through which an individual can claim that a proposed action is inconsistent with the management plan.

AB 1876 (Frazier) proposes to expand the number of individuals on the Council to 11 voting members and two non-voting members. The voting member additions would include:

- One member appointed by the municipal selection committee in the primary zone of the Delta
- One member appointed by the municipal selection committee in the secondary zone of the Delta
- One member with expertise in Delta agricultural interests
- One member with expertise in Delta small business interests
  - Both of these members need to have a primary residence in the Delta and be appointed by a selection committee organized by the Boards of Supervisors of Contra Costa, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Solano, and Yolo counties

The non-voting member additions would include:

- One member of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules

AB 1876 (Frazier) – Delta Stewardship Council: OPPOSE
February X, 2018

Assembly Member Jim Frazier
California State Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3091
Sacramento, CA 95814

Re: AB 1876 (Frazier) – Delta Stewardship Council: OPPOSE
Assigned to Assembly Water, Parks and Wildlife Committee

Dear Assembly Member Frazier:

We, the undersigned, regret to inform you of our opposition to your bill, AB 1876, a bill which seeks to revise the composition of the Delta Stewardship Council (Council).

The current appointment format for the Council, as established by the Legislature in 2009, reflects the statewide interests of its actions. Two-thirds of Californians depend directly on water supplies from the Delta. Nearly 95 percent of all Californians get some or all of their water from the Delta watershed, which comes from rainfall and snowmelt in the upper watersheds and Sierra Nevada Mountains. The Delta is also the largest estuary in the western hemisphere, making it of international ecological importance.

The Council is tasked with developing and implementing a Delta Plan that seeks to coordinate the actions of dozens of local, state and federal agencies with decision-making authority over projects and programs in the Delta. Only one region, under existing law, has a guaranteed seat on this seven-member Council, that being the automatic appointment of the chair of the Delta Protection Commission. The State Assembly, State Senate and Governor also make appointments essential to achieving the Council’s mission, which may include other representatives from the Delta region.

Altering the makeup of the Council so that it is dominated by in-Delta interests could create a potential bias against projects that have a statewide benefit or, in contrast, in support of proposed land development within the Delta, which was identified in the Delta Plan by the Council as among the threats to the region.

The Delta counties, both directly and through their legislative representatives, largely opposed the creation of the Delta Stewardship Council in 2009. Many of these jurisdictions opposed to the Delta Plan are also seeking to weaken it through the courts and support AB 1876.
A disproportionate representation of local jurisdictions that have been opposed to the Council and its Delta Plan risk the state achieving the co-equal goals of a restored Delta and a reliable water supply for California. Distributing Council seats based on geography is contrary to the Council’s statewide mission and will frustrate finding fair and balanced solutions in the Delta going forward.

For all of the above reasons, we must oppose AB 1876 and will urge members of the Assembly Water, Parks and Wildlife Committee to vote NO on your bill.

Sincerely,

Re: SB828 (Wiener) Land Use: Housing Element.

Introduction and Background
While SB 828 (Wiener) currently contains only intent language, the stated intent of the bill is to require the Department of Housing and Community Development to take actions relative to unmet housing needs. Such actions are to include a comprehensive assessment on unmet need for each region, which would be included in regional allocations for the next housing element cycle. The author’s office has stated that the intent of the bill is to strengthen the Regional Housing Needs Assessment (RHNA) by increasing state oversight over local and regional housing obligations.

Status of Legislation
SB 828 (Weiner) was referred to the Senate Rules Committee and has not yet been referred to a policy committee.

Support and Opposition
The author’s office argues that the RHNA process is not working properly, as the state’s population forecasts do not take into account the underproduction of housing in some communities. The author claims that this in turn artificially limits population growth, creating the illusion of slowing or static growth. The author’s office also asserts that the methodology established by each regional government results in allocations that are not based on true housing demand.

There is currently no formal opposition to the bill.

Item 10
INTRODUCTION
This item is being brought forward for discussion at the request of Councilmember John Mirisch.

DISCUSSION
The Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act ("Costa-Hawkins") is a California state law, enacted in 1995, which places limits on municipal rent control ordinances. Costa-Hawkins prohibits cities from establishing rent control over certain kinds of residential units (e.g., single family dwellings, and newly constructed units, which are both deemed exempt). It also prohibits municipal "vacancy control", also called "strict" rent control.

In 2017, State Assemblymember Richard Bloom co-authored AB 1506 which would have repealed the state’s Costa-Hawkins Act. This legislation died when it failed to pass out of the Assembly Committee on Housing and Community Development on January 11, 2018.

Currently there is an initiative circulating for signature to attempt to qualify the repeal of Costa Hawkins for the November Ballot.

MEMORANDUM

TO: City Council Liaison/Legislative/Lobby Committee
FROM: Cindy Owens, Senior Management Analyst
DATE: February 12, 2018
SUBJECT: Ellis Act
ATTACHMENT: 1. None

INTRODUCTION
This item is being brought forward for discussion at the request of Councilmember John Mirisch.

DISCUSSION
The Ellis Act is a state law that allows landlords to evict residential tenants in order to “go out of the rental business”. To take advantage of the Ellis Act, a landlord must terminate all residential tenancies and withdraw all "accommodations". Therefore, a landlord cannot terminate the tenancies of rental units with lower, rent-controlled rents while maintaining the market rate tenancies.

RECOMMENDATION
Staff is requesting direction from the Liaisons on this item.
