City of Beverly Hills Announces the Reopening of the Farmers' Market on June 21

Guidelines in Place Will Follow L.A. County Safety Protocols

Beverly Hills, Calif. - The City of Beverly Hills announced today that on Sunday, June 21, 2020, the Farmers' Market will reopen and take place every Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. while following L.A. County safety protocols. The City will include limiting crowd capacity, requiring face coverings and social distancing at all times. Early shopping hours will be available to seniors and high-risk individuals from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. At this time, only farmers and prepackaged food vendors will be at the market. No food trucks, or open, prepared food items will be available. At this time, we are unable to provide live music, the petting zoo, seating areas or shopping carts so please plan accordingly. The Farmers' Market has been closed since March 15, 2020 in response to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic to help prevent the spread of the virus and to ensure a safe and healthy community.

In addition, we ask the public for their cooperation in helping us to maintain a safe and healthy community by staying home if one is experiencing any symptoms of illness and to only send one family member per household due to the limited capacity and in order to allow others the opportunity to shop. Also, no pets are allowed; only service animals may accompany their owner.
