Beverly Hills, Calif. - This Sunday, May 7, Greystone Mansion Concours d'Elegance rolls into town! You won't want to miss this prestigious car show with notable collectors exhibiting some very rare cars from their collections. The Concours will honor the 100th anniversary of Lincoln Motorcars and 70th anniversary of Ferrari. Vintage motorcycles and over 130 automobiles in fifteen classes, manufactured prior to 1974, including Pre-War US and Pre-War European will be on display from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. at the beautiful Doheny Greystone Mansion, one of only a few nationally registered historic landmarks in Southern California. You can purchase tickets at www.greystoneconcours.org.

“Now that we are in our eighth year, Greystone Mansion Concours d'Elegance has gained popularity and people are taking notice of this event” says Cindy Bryan, director of the Greystone Mansion Concours d'Elegance. “Based on ticket sales, it looks like we will greatly surpass last year's attendance. Greystone Mansion is a perfect setting to showcase beautiful vintage cars and we are honored to have some very notable collectors and just as excited that so many people want to come out and be part of this event.”

The Greystone Concours d'Elegance is produced by the City of Beverly Hills, with the support of the Friends of Greystone, whose mission is to raise funds to restore and preserve the Doheny Greystone Estate.
