A favorite of Classical Crossroads audiences, three-time Beverly Hills National Auditions winner, pianist So-Mang Jeagal returns with supremely talented friends. As Grand Prize winner in the 61st Washington International Competition for Piano, So-Mang Jeagal was awarded $10,000, a concerto appearance at the Kennedy Center, and a solo recital on the prestigious Phillips Collection Recital Series. So-Mang also won the 2014 Los Angeles International Liszt Competition, receiving an all-expense-paid trip to present a solo recital at the Liszt Museum in Budapest, Hungary.

So-Mang, cellist Kyoung-Eun Choi, and soprano Jungwon Choi trained in the graduate program at the USC Thornton School of Music. So-Mang's four-hand piano partner Beth Nam, also a previous Beverly Hills National Auditions winner, received her Bachelor of Music, Master of Music, and Doctorate of Musical Arts degrees as a scholarship student at The Juilliard School.

Music in the Mansion offers the finest in solo and chamber music, sponsored by the City of Beverly Hills Community Service Department, under the artistic direction of Laura Schmieder, who founded iPalpiti International, an organization dedicated to helping exceptionally gifted, professional musicians advance in their careers.
