City of Beverly Hills and Human Relations Commission Recognize National Kindness Week with Inspirational Acts of Kindness Activities

Beverly Hills, Calif. – The City of Beverly Hills Human Services Department in partnership with the Human Relations Commission will recognize National Kindness Week with inspirational acts of kindness activities. Kickoff activities begin February 17 at the Beverly Hills Farmers' Market with a booth sponsored by the Human Relations Commission. Visitors can pledge their commitment to kindness with a message on a paper scroll.

Additional activities for Kindness Week include:

- Monday, February 18 - President's Day, the public is asked to participate in acts of kindness with family and friends during the holiday.
- Tuesday, February 19, 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m., a special Baby Story Time will be held at the Beverly Hills Public Library featuring a story about kindness that includes creative free play for pre-walkers.
- Wednesday, February 20, is Practice Kindness at School day. Students are encouraged to practice kindness and civility with their classmates.
- On Thursday, February 21, there will be a special screening of Won't You Be My Neighbor at 1 p.m. at Roxbury Community Center for the weekly senior movie. The film is an acclaimed documentary on the notable achievements of Mr. Rogers, the children's television personality and author of several books.
- On Friday, February 22, Human Relations Commissioners will visit Beverly Hills Preschools and entertain preschoolers with books about kindness.
