SUBJECT: Rodeo Drive Concours d’Elegance Father’s Day Car Show – June 21, 2020

INTRODUCTION
This item provides the City Council Liaisons with an update on the annual Rodeo Drive Concours d’Elegance Father’s Day Car Show. The event will celebrate its 27 year and will take place on Sunday, June 21, 2020.

The City Council Liaisons are requested to review conceptual designs and elements regarding the Rodeo Drive Committee’s proposal.

As in previous years, there is a request to approve a street closure for all three blocks of Rodeo Drive.

DISCUSSION
The Concours d’Elegance Father’s Day Car Show has become a City-legacy program in Beverly Hills. Curated with the support of longtime resident and car enthusiast Bruce Meyer and the Rodeo Drive Committee, the program brings an estimated 35,000 visitors throughout event.

This year’s featured class is Supercars. Supercars represent the pinnacle of automotive technology, performance and styling. They are faster, flashier and more expensive than everything else on the road. They also attract a young, affluent and social media-savvy audience.

McLaren Beverly Hills with Richard Mille, powered by O’Gara, a Beverly Hills-based luxury car dealership company, has agreed to be a sponsor of this year’s car show. McLaren has built some of the world’s fastest, most beautiful and most expensive cars. A handpicked selection of their best examples from the past and present will be displayed on 200 block of Rodeo Drive. Graphic design for the event’s promotional materials has been developed inclusive of McLaren feedback.

This year’s event will feature the same elements as last year; including food trucks, Winner’s Circle, step and repeat, exhibitor gift bags within an updated floor plan. The VIP Lounge will be hosted at the Louis Vuitton Rodeo Drive rooftop deck.
All three blocks of Rodeo Drive will be closed from Saturday, June 20, 8:00PM to Sunday, June 21, 2019, 11:00PM.

FISCAL IMPACT

The funding for this event is equivalent to the amount provided last year, which is $172,500. This amount is currently available in the City Council approved budget for Fiscal Year 2019-20 in the Tourism and Marketing budget (00101311).

Sponsorship funding is managed directly through the RDC to help supplement costs associated with the event.

RECOMMENDATION

Staff requests the City Council Liaisons review the current event information and provide feedback as appropriate.
Rodeo Drive Concours d’Elegance

FROM: Garin Hussenjian, Community Outreach Manager
DATE: February 27, 2019
SUBJECT: Rodeo Drive Committee Podcast: “Only On Rodeo Drive”
ATTACHMENT: 1. Podcast Presentation Deck by Rodeo Drive Committee

INTRODUCTION
This item provides the City Council Liaisons with information about the Rodeo Drive Committee’s proposed podcast series titled “Only On Rodeo Drive.” Podcasts are digital audio files available on the internet for downloading to a computer or mobile device. “Only On Rodeo Drive” will be the first podcast of its kind to explore luxury and fashion on Rodeo Drive.

DISCUSSION
The Rodeo Drive Committee is proposing to launch an eight episode podcast series about Rodeo Drive, where listeners will be guided on a journey through the past and present of iconic Rodeo. The podcast will provide immersive experiences to behind-the-scenes stories, exclusive awards season moments and histories of some of Rodeo’s landmark boutiques.

Each episode will be thirty minutes long and will cover topics such as; VIP experiences for shoppers, the Golden Era of Hollywood, high tech innovations, fashion month and the Concours d’Elegance Father’s Day Car Show.

The Rodeo Drive Committee proposes Bronwyn Cosgrave host, Frances Anderton produce, Lory Martinez senior produce and Lyn Winter executive produce the series. Combined, the group holds vast experience in radio broadcasting, fashion and style podcasts, journalism and content production and overall cultural expertise.

FISCAL IMPACT
The total cost for a podcast season of eight episodes is $40,000. If approved, funding is available in the City Council approved budget for Fiscal Year 2019-20 in the Tourism and Marketing budget (00101311).

RECOMMENDATION
Staff requests the City Council Liaisons review the information, provide feedback and consider the associated funding request.
A NEW PODCAST
ONLY ON RODEO DRIVE
ONLY ON RODEO DRIVE PODCAST

OVERVIEW

Only On Rodeo Drive is the first podcast to explore the iconic luxury and fashion thoroughfare: Rodeo Drive.

While the through lines are fashion and luxury, the reference points will be local and global, including business, culture, entertainment, architecture and design, technology, hospitality, and the noted history and community that shapes this unrivalled and glamorous locale.

Hosted with fashion curator and cultural commentator Bronwyn Cosgrave, produced in consultation with Frances Anderton, host of KCRW's DnA: Design and Architecture, and executive produced by Lyn Winter, Only On Rodeo, will take listeners on a journey with the people; exploring the landmark fashion boutiques; the superlative craftsmanship and current innovations in fashion, art and design; the world-class culinary institutions and the street’s colorful past, conveying its very human sense of place.

Listeners will feel like they are on and a part of the street, encountering the personalities that set Rodeo Drive apart as an unrivalled international luxury destination and a compelling voice in luxury and fashion.

Timed to seasonal highlights that impact Rodeo Drive such as the Oscars, Rodeo Drive’s Concours d'Elégance, international art and design events, and world fashion months, each episode of Only on Rodeo Drive will offer listeners an immersive, sensory, behind-the-scenes experience of the very heart of Rodeo Drive, similar to backstage access at an blockbuster fashion show.

It will prompt listeners to personally explore the street’s inimitable pleasures, which Andy Warhol once described as a “giant butterscotch sundae.”
Frances Anderton, Podcast advisor and producer

Frances Anderton is host of “DnA: Design and Architecture”, broadcast weekly on KCRW public radio station and podcast at kcrw.com/dna. For many years Anderton produced KCRW’s acclaimed current affairs shows, “To The Point”, and “Which Way, LA?”, hosted by Warren Olney. Anderton is a regular public speaker, and she curates events and exhibitions, including “Sink Or Swim: Designing For a Sea Change”, a critically received exhibition at the Annenberg Space for Photography. She has served as West Coast correspondent for the New York Times and Dwell magazine. Her books include "Grand Illusion: A Story of Ambition, and its Limits, on LA’s Bunker Hill", based a studio she co-taught with Frank Gehry at USC School of Architecture. Anderton hosted the "Desert X 2019 Podcast", featuring artists including Sterling Ruby, Superflex and Kathleen Ryan. Honors include the LA Press Club’s 2019 award for investigative journalism.
MEET THE TALENT

Bronwyn Cosgrave, Host, best-selling author, broadcaster and cultural commentator

Bronwyn Cosgrave is a best-selling author and broadcaster who discusses fashion on nationally syndicated radio shows like Marketplace, Q as well as KCRW’s DnA. Vanity Fair has described Bronwyn’s book, Made For Each Other: Fashion and the Academy Awards (Bloomsbury), as the “definitive study of the Oscars fashion phenomenon.” Over Awards Season 2020, Bronwyn’s red carpet commentary appeared in the New York Times, CNN Style and on Dressed: The History of Fashion Podcast, which devoted a 40-minute episode to her work.

Bronwyn is the host of the fashion podcast A Different Tweed on which she interviews iconic professionals to explore their craft and creative process. Bronwyn wrote the cover story of December 2019’s Architectural Digest ‘Living With Art Issue.’ She contributes to The Hollywood Reporter. She curated the largest James Bond museum exhibition ever staged - Designing 007, Fifty Years of Bond Style. She is the producer of feature-length theatrical documentaries exploring the life and work of Manolo Blahnik, Kevyn Aucoin and the Swarovski family.

Lory Martinez, Senior Producer

Lory Martinez is a Columbian-American journalist and podcast producer with nearly a decade of content production experience gleaned from working for a diverse array of broadcasters and content outlets including NPR and UN Radio as well as Bustle and PopSugar. Lory creates engaging content in French, English and Spanish. She teaches podcasting at the American University in Paris.

WHY LAUNCH A PODCAST?

NEW EXPOSURE / DIRECT CONNECTION TO LOCAL AND GLOBAL AUDIENCES
Only On Rodeo Drive will facilitate new exposure for Rodeo Drive and a direct connection with an expanding local and global audience of educated, high net-worth individuals.

AN EXPANDING AUDIENCE OF LISTENERS / A FORMAT THAT ENGENDERS TRUST
Podcast listeners typically tune in with headphones or via their car stereo. This personal and direct connection makes ideas and suggestions particularly powerful. So when a destination, a brand, product or service is mentioned on Only On Rodeo Drive, listeners are likely to take action. The number of people using mobile apps to listen to podcast has increased 60 per cent since January 2018 according to Adobe Analytics.

A CALL TO ACTION/ENTERTAINING AND INFORMING
Custom on-air messaging acknowledging Rodeo Drive can be crafted to further heighten brand awareness. This messaging can be heard at the start and middle of the podcast providing Rodeo Drive with an opportunity for an evergreen voice. The podcast will act as a modern and direct call to action, will inform, educate, entertain, and encourage loyal listenership and following.
The audience for Only on Rodeo Drive is 18–75, affluent, diverse international, educated, male and female and non-binary. They are consumers of fashion, fine jewelry, art, design, architecture, cars, cosmetics and travel. They engage in social media several times a day and follow their favorite brands on social media.

Only On Rodeo Drive listeners are both local residents, creative travelers from around the world who often combine business travel with shopping as well as shopping as part of a vacation, and individuals interested in luxury lifestyle, fashion and visual culture. They tune in to podcasts on the go and listen in while driving, exercising, or partaking in their favorite recreational pursuit.

A NEW PODCAST
ONLY ON RODEO DRIVE
Item 4
Based on a recommendation by Mayor Mirisch, staff met with Mr. Armen Ter-Tatevosian of the Rachmaninoff Competitions and Festivals and Mr. Vladimir Chernov of the UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music. Mr. Ter-Tatevosian is interested in holding the Final Round of the 2021 Rachmaninoff Piano Competition in Beverly Hills, which was the home of Sergei Rachmaninoff. Mr. Ter-Tatevosian is interested in using one of the City's days at the Wallis Annenberg for the Performing Arts (Wallis) for this competition, preferably to be held on April 3 or April 4, 2021.

Additionally, Mr. Ter-Tatevosian requests the City's support of the First Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition which will be held in June 2023. The request is for use of the Wallis for 7-8 consecutive days, financial assistance for the festival, and help in identifying individuals who could serve on the organizing committee for the festival. Staff is checking with Mr. Ter-Tatevosian regarding whether fewer days would be acceptable to still host the festival and the type of financial assistance that is sought. Additionally, staff will discuss the festival with Wallis staff to see if they would be willing to host the festival directly (rather than using City dates). Additional information will be provided at the liaison meeting.
February 6, 2020

Ms. Nancy Hunt-Coffey
Assistant City Manager
City of Beverly Hills
455 N. Rexford Drive
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

Dear Nancy,

Per your request I am attaching information about the proposed 2023 First Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition and Festival you requested for the City of Beverly Hills consideration. I would be happy to provide any additional information the city may want in order to fully consider the request.

In regards to the 2021 Rachmaninoff International Piano Competition for young pianist:

The Rachmaninoff piano competition is tentatively scheduled for February 28 – March 4, 2021 in City of Pasadena. However, we would like to present the Final Round of the Piano Competition (with symphony orchestra) in Beverly Hills if the city would provide us the Bram Goldsmith Theater of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts for at least one day and partial funding to cover some of the expenses related to the production of the event in Beverly Hills.

Also, we will be glad to consider presenting the Final Round of the 2021 Rachmaninoff Piano Competition as a joint production with the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts if the management of the arts center would be interested and would like to include this event as part of their programming for the 2020-2021 season.

If the Bram Goldsmith Theater is not available on April 3 or 4, 2021 we can consider rescheduling the Piano Competition for a later date (May-June).

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Armen Ter-Tatevosian
President and CEO
Sergei Rachmaninoff (1873-1943)

Sergei Rachmaninoff is widely considered one of the finest pianists of all time and, as a composer, one of the last great representatives of Romanticism in classical music. Rachmaninoff was a Russian-born composer who later in life became an American citizen. As a performer, composer, and conductor, Rachmaninoff is remembered as one of the true artistic geniuses of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

Rachmaninoff made his first tour of the United States as a pianist in 1909, an event for which he composed the now famous Piano Concerto No. 3.

A list of compositions by Rachmaninoff includes four piano concertos and The Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini. Works for piano solo include Prelude in C-sharp minor, Études-Tableaux, Six moments musicaux, the Variations on a Theme of Chopin and the Variations on a Theme of Corelli.

Rachmaninoff also wrote two major a cappella choral works—the Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom and the All-Night Vigil (also known as the Vespers). Other choral works include a choral symphony called The Bells, the cantata Spring, the Three Russian Songs, and an early Concerto for Choir (a cappella). Rachmaninoff also composed a number of works for orchestra alone. The three symphonies: No. 1 in D minor, Op. 13 (1895), No. 2 in E minor, Op. 27 (1907), and No. 3 in A minor, Op. 44 (1935–36).

Rachmaninoff died on 28 March 1943, in Beverly Hills, California, just four days before his 70th birthday.

Festival Description

‘Rachmaninoff Competitions and Festivals’ is a registered U.S. trademark owned by the exclusive producer of the event in United States, International Competitions and Festivals (a California non-profit 501 (c)(3) corporation). Rachmaninoff Competitions and Festivals events are presented on the highest international artistic and organizational level.

In 2023, in honor of Rachmaninoff’s 150th Birthday Anniversary Festival, plans are being put into place to stage all three S. Rachmaninoff operas (American premieres), which will perhaps be realized in cooperation with the Washington National Opera and major Russian and international opera houses. The festival will also include the Fourth Rachmaninoff International Piano Competition and the First Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition, symphonic, choral and chamber music concerts, and Rachmaninoff exhibitions. In addition, S. Rachmaninoff will be honored by a Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. The festival events will be concluded with a final concert in Washington, D.C.

We would like to explore the possibility of presenting the First Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition and Festival in Beverly Hills, California in June 2023 at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. Simultaneously with the Vocal Competition, a Rachmaninoff exhibition could also be presented at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts (or in another suitable venue in Beverly Hills).

The Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition will have three rounds. The Jury of the Competition will be comprised of world famous musicians. The competition jury will choose six finalists who will perform in the competition’s Final Round with a symphony orchestra. Winners of the competition will receive sizable cash prizes and concert engagements.

Festival needs in Beverly Hills

To present the First Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition and Festival in Beverly Hills in June 2023, we will need the following:

1. Availability of the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts for approximately 7-8 consecutive days.
2. Financial assistance towards the budget of the event.
3. Help in identifying individuals who could serve on the Beverly Hills Organizing Committee of the 2023 Rachmaninoff Festival / Rachmaninoff First International Vocal Competition in Beverly Hills.

In previous years, the Rachmaninoff Competitions and Festivals were supported by the city mayors of Moscow (Russia), Pasadena and Los Angeles. We are hoping that the First Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition and Festival in 2023 will be presented under the auspices of the Mayors of the City of Beverly Hills and Moscow, and now ask for your consideration of this request. Backing by the City of Beverly Hills could very well help secure some financial support for the project from the City of Moscow.

Conclusion

There are very few significant international music and vocal international competitions found anywhere in the United States. Therefore, presenting an international event such as the First Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition and Festival in Beverly Hills will attract large, enthusiastic audiences from near and far, further building Beverly Hills as an even greater cultural tourism destination.

Potentially, the Rachmaninoff International Vocal Competition and Festival could become a permanent high profile and prestigious cultural international event (held periodically) in the City of Beverly Hills.
