DESCRIPTION:

VIA Alpine Drive

The southeast corner of Alpine and Lomitas is occupied by this two story Spanish Colonial Revival dwelling. Its L-shaped facade is anchored by a circular "tower" where the legs of the "L" meet. Sheathed in stucco, the structure is capped by tiled hip and gable roofs. The entry is arched and located to the left (north) of the tower. Other notable features include a wood-railed balcony across most of the north wing, wrought iron grilles, a perforated stucco screen, and casement windows. A hood which shades the windows below the balcony may be an alteration.
