

A Heritage Tree is any tree with a trunk circumference of forty eight (48) inches or more, measured at a height of four feet six inches (4'6") above natural grade