Earth Day Celebration & Farmers' Market Set For April 7
Morning Road Closures in Place Due to 'Run to Remember' Race

Beverly Hills, Calif. (March 26, 2019) – The City of Beverly Hills is preparing for its annual Earth Day Celebration on Sunday, April 7 from 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Held in conjunction with the weekly Farmers' Market, the event is in the 9300 Block of Civic Center Drive. There will be opportunities to celebrate the environment and sustainability with pet adoptions, a petting zoo, paper-shredding station, free gardening compost, live music and more.

This year the 'Run to Remember Race' honoring fallen first responders will be passing through the City earlier that morning. As a result, there will be several road closures in Beverly Hills that will affect arrival to the celebration and market:

- 4:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. - Avenue of the Stars, in both directions from South Santa Monica Boulevard to Pico Blvd.
- Midnight - 10:00 a.m. - South Santa Monica Boulevard, eastbound lane only from Ave. of the Stars to Burton Way
- 4:30 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. - Burton Way, eastbound lane only from La Cienega Blvd. to South Santa Monica Blvd.
- 4:30 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. - Pico Boulevard, in both directions from Motor Ave. to La Cienega Blvd.
