Suspects Arrested in Connection with May 2022 Armed Residential Robbery

Beverly Hills, Calif. – Beverly Hills Police have arrested three suspects in connection with an armed residential robbery that occurred last spring. In the early morning hours of Tuesday, May 3, Beverly Hills Police officers responded to the 700 block of North Camden Dr. for an unknown trouble call. The investigation later confirmed that an armed robbery had occurred. Multiple suspects entered the location and forced the residents to surrender their property. The suspects fled in a vehicle that was parked in the alley.

BHPD detectives immediately began conducting a follow-up investigation that included reviewing public and private surveillance footage and processing the scene for physical evidence.

On November 16, 2022, BHPD detectives identified five suspects in connection with this crime. Three of the suspects were subsequently arrested:

- Charles Daniel Chiodo from Sylmar, CA – arrested by BHPD CIT detectives during a traffic stop. He was booked at BHPD for 211 PC – Felony robbery. Chiodo was in possession of a firearm at the time of his arrest and was also charged and booked for 29800(A)(1)PC – Felon in possession of a firearm
- Anthony Chavez Avila Jr. from Northridge, CA – arrested by BHPD CIT detectives during a traffic stop. He was booked at BHPD for 211 PC – Felony robbery
- Joseph Michael Haberlack from Sylmar, CA – arrested by BHPD CIT detectives during a traffic stop. He was booked at BHPD for 211 PC – Felony robbery

Arrest warrants have been issued for the two remaining suspects. The investigation is still ongoing.

“Let this be a reminder to anyone thinking of committing a crime in Beverly Hills – You will be caught,” said Police Chief Mark Stainbrook.
