BH PUBLIC LIBRARY SUMMER READING CLUB KICKS OFF MAY 20

Program Offers Reading Clubs, Fun Activities and Entertainment throughout the Summer

Beverly Hills, Calif. – The Beverly Hills Public Library “Read for the Win” Summer Reading Club (SRC) kicks off on Friday, May 20 and runs for ten and a half weeks to August 17. SRC encourages kids of all ages, as well as adults, to continue reading during the summer and participate in all the SRC programs. SRC participants can utilize the many resources that the library has to offer. To sign up for “Read for the Win” SRC, you can go to Beverly Hills Public Library, 444 North Rexford Drive starting May 20 or complete registration on line at www.bhpl.org. Incentive rewards are offered.

Summer Reading Club encourages reading throughout the summer by providing an incentive when participants reach a reading goal. Children, tweens, and teens are given a logbook to keep track of time spent reading and are rewarded with free books and gift certificates depending on goals reached.. Grown-ups can also participate in the program.

The Summer Reading Club “Read for the Win” offers special teen and tween activities on Tuesdays and Thursdays, live entertainment on five Wednesdays referred to as Wonderful Wednesdays, a Minecraft Monday in August, and Storytime throughout the summer.

All these programs are free. For more information about these programs and schedule of events, activities and entertainment, visit www.bhpl.org or call the Beverly Hills Public Library at 310-288-2220.

Summer Reading Club volunteer opportunities are available for teens entering grades 9-12. Volunteers will assist with activities in the Children’s Library and at the five special outdoor events held in the Beverly Hills Civic Center Plaza. For more information on how you can volunteer, visit www.bhpl.org.
