Los Angeles Residents Perlmann and Greenhalgh win Best Display of Art in Beverly Hills artSHOW

Greenhalgh

Perlmann

Beverly Hills, Calif. -- The Beverly Hills artSHOW, held on October 15 and 16 brought art and festival lovers from all over, who enjoyed the work of 250 artists in categories including Ceramics, Digital Media, Drawing and Printmaking, Glass, Jewelry, Mixed Media, Painting, Photography, Sculpture and Watercolor. Festival goers had a wide variety of beverages and food to choose from with a Beer & Brat Garden, Wine & Dine Garden, two coffee trucks, four dessert trucks and fifteen gourmet food trucks. And for the children, activities were provided by the show's charitable partner, Children's Hospital Los Angeles, and its sister organization, Healing Art with Kids.

Photography Karchi Perlmann and Mixed Media artist David Greenhalgh, both won the Best Display of Art Award at the 43rd Bi-annual Beverly Hills artSHOW this past weekend.

Photographer Perlmann began his career in early 1990 shooting regional and national assignments for ad agencies, in-house corporate clients, publications and the travel industry, covering life-style, fashion editorial, corporate and architectural subjects with such clients as TAG, Disney, Architectural Digest and Time Magazine. In 2000, he moved to Venice, California where his current focus in photography is entertainment, editorial, fashion/beauty, corporate and fine arts.

Artist David Greenhalgh is an artist who, along with his his team of artisans, takes vintage heaters and refurbishes them in unique and creative ways with beautiful mosaic makeovers. They are often repurposed as eye-catching fireplaces, display for candles, collectibles, photos, jewelry and more.
