I. New York Mission

This year, the suitable dates for the New York Mission are from Oct. 26-29. The three-day mission will continue to be dedicated to one-on-one meetings with attraction and retention candidates (Monday, Oct. 26 will be a travel day and with all meetings held between the 27th and 29th). The team will divide into 2-3 tracks as it has in prior years.

Now in its 13th year, the New York Business Attraction and Retention Mission has a twofold strategy: (a) attract businesses based in New York to expand to Beverly Hills and; (b) demonstrate the continued value of maintaining a presence in Beverly Hills to businesses operating in both locations. Last year, the delegation participated in a total of 26 meetings with attraction targets and large Rodeo Drive retailers that provided an opportunity for all parties to share their questions and concerns about doing business in Beverly Hills. In November, the Chamber helped coordinate a walking tour of Beverly Hills with decision makers from Serendipity restaurant to look at site selection. The brokerage firm has kept in touch with their head of real estate development and are continuing to look for the best location for them.. The Chamber continues to make contact with additional restaurants and retailers about their possibility of opening up a location in Beverly Hills. We have connected one retailer with a broker who has stated an intention to open up their doors in 2016.

In order to make our meetings with “attraction targets” even more successful, the Chamber has entered into an agreement with a prominent New York-based retail consultant to assist in the selection of businesses most interested in opening up a location in Beverly Hills. This consultant will enable to the Chamber to make more informed decisions about the most promising businesses to meet with while in New York. The consultant will vet possible targets for their suitability and how well capitalized they are to actually open a store in Beverly Hills. Also this year, we will look into scheduling “neighborhood reconnaissance tours” whereby members of the delegation walk through various neighborhoods (i.e., Chelsea, Fifth Avenue) looking for possible good retail fits for Beverly Hills.

As with the last two years, a particularly high priority for meetings would go to arranging meetings with flagships on Rodeo Drive currently undergoing renovation, or who have recently re-opened renovated flagships (i.e., Barneys, Burberry, Tory Burch, Vera Wang, Louis Vuitton).

The Chamber will research key businesses to approach for attraction meetings in New York as well as assess which existing businesses in Beverly Hills would most benefit from a visit. As in prior years, the Chamber will arrange and coordinate all travel logistics.

The total cost for this item is $110,000. Cost breakdown available in Attachment A.

Note: Amount is $5,000 more than last year to account for the hiring of a retail consultant who will help make the program more strategic by confirming the efficient selection of businesses.

II. Local Marketing Initiatives

(a) Continued administration of My Beverly Hills

The Chamber will continue to oversee and expand the current My Beverly Hills program aimed to encourage engagement between local businesses and residents to increase the number of dollars locals spend within Beverly Hills.

The purpose of the My Beverly Hills program is to provide a program connecting the business community with the locals (work force and residents) that serves as a bridge between these communities. My Beverly Hills is a fun interactive program intended to educate the Beverly Hills community about the world-renowned shopping and restaurants available in their backyard. The program includes a website, a monthly newsletter, community events, and marketing and social media campaigns throughout the year.

In the past year, the My Beverly Hills program achieved all of the following to fulfill its mission as a tool of engagement for the community:

- Average of 3,000 unique monthly visitors to the My Beverly Hills site
- We held a total of 10 events (happy hours/mixers) that had an average attendance of 100-150 per event. These events highlighted local establishments such as Luxe Hotel, Hakkasan, Nirvana, Pussy & Pooch, Infiniti of Beverly Hills among other venues. Post-event follow-up with these venues found that they experienced return visits as a result of these events.
- Overall, the site featured over 70 articles or posts highlighting different businesses and items of local interest. This original content helped drive traffic to these establishments.
- One major anecdote: The First Friday event at Fleming's Steakhouse which features a spirit tasting (wine, bourbon, etc.), reported to the Chamber that between 17 and 20 percent of guests had heard of the event through My Beverly Hills.
- On average, My Beverly Hills creates 40 original posts with content on social media sites every week to drive traffic to the website and interest in the programming and content. This is a total of over 2,000 posts a year driven out to interested businesses and residents.
- Site achieved an additional 600 subscribers throughout the year. These are unique subscribers that are members of the community and may not be reached by Chamber communications.

In FY 2015-16, the Chamber will continue to broaden the reach of My Beverly Hills in the community, hold events bringing together the residential and business communities and add to the subscriber list.

Specific goals include:

- Expand the reach of My Beverly Hills beyond mixers to community building events that bring together several businesses. Our goal would be a total of 15 events which would include a monthly mixer and other community building events.
- Continue to have robust content and social media presence and increase traffic to My Beverly Hills to 5,000 visitors a month.

- Add 2,000 new subscribers to the list.

The total cost for this item is $53,000. Cost breakdown available in Attachment B.

(b) Beverly Hills Restaurant Week

From March 16-20, the Chamber produced a “Culinary Week on Canon & La Cienega” that recruited 20 restaurants to participate. This weekly event, similar to dine LA’s campaigns, allowed restaurants to publicize a prix fixe menu and other specials to diners as a way to promote their offerings.

To promote the event, the Chamber placed advertisements in the Courier & the Weekly, arranged for eight banners to be placed on Canon & four banners to be placed on La Cienega, and had word sent out to 900,000 subscribers on Yelp’s list. We also held a mixer at Morton’s on March 12 to kick-off the event.

Major feedback from culinary week was:

- Several restaurants reported an increase in business (example, Lawry’s reported a 5% increase; the Montage Rooftop attributed a total of five tables that were reserved due to restaurant week).
- All restaurants that participated expressed a desire to have the event next year
- Many participating restaurants requested increased marketing and promotion for the event.
- Several restaurants in other areas of Beverly Hills notified us that they would like to see a city-wide culinary week.

In response to this feedback, the Chamber conducted a survey of all restaurants in the city to see if this was indeed true. Of the 44 responses we received, 42 stated that they would participate in such a campaign.

To promote Beverly Hills Restaurant Week and make it a success, the Chamber will do all of the following:

- Street teams will pass out collateral
- City-wide outreach to restaurants using street teams
- Print out collateral for use by the restaurants. This could include inserts into check-holders where diners receive their bills and perhaps window signage
- We will place 100 street banners throughout Beverly Hills with priority for high traffic streets (La Cienega, Wilshire, Robertson, Canon, Beverly for example).
- We will hold a large kick-off event the week before Restaurant Week utilizing the My Beverly Hills platform
- Hold an informational town hall meeting for restaurants one month prior to the event about how to enroll and access materials
- On the first day of restaurant week, we will look into having light on-street entertainment to build awareness

- Create a landing page and dedicated website for the event to promote participating restaurants and their special menus.
- We will partner with Yelp to get the word out and reach out to all the major food blogs and local media outlets to announce the event. We will place advertising in the Weekly and Courier (and strongly consider the LA Times) and also hold social media contests

Our goal is to recruit a minimum of 40 Beverly Hills restaurants to participate in the campaign, tentatively scheduled for March of 2016. Over the course of the campaign, our goal is for the participating restaurants to report an average of 5% increase in sales. We will gauge the impact and success of restaurant week with follow-up surveys and a detailed report.

The total cost for this item is $70,000. Cost breakdown available in Attachment B.

(c) Hyper-Local Marketing Campaigns

Chamber is proposing two hyper-local marketing campaigns focusing on the promotion of individual streets and surrounding neighborhoods of Beverly Hills. Last year, the Chamber organized a total of three hyper-local events (restaurant weeks on Canon and La Cienega and an event on May 2nd on South Beverly Drive). Thus far, the Chamber has received positive reviews from merchants and residents about these events.

For 2015, the hyper-local events could showcase S. Robertson and S. Beverly. In response to feedback from businesses that they would like more marketing for the event, we are asking for $4,000 more for each hyper-local event to create a stronger buzz about the week-long campaigns in each area. The hyper-local events will continue to strive to raise awareness of the businesses in each respective neighborhood.

(1) Area Focus: South Beverly Drive

Possible Campaign Name/Theme: Valentine's Day Week on South Beverly Drive (Feb. 8-14, 2016)

Special Note: The Chamber is still collecting testimonials and reports on the impact of the South Beverly Drive hyper-local campaign event on May 2 that was meant to promote shopping for Mother's Day. Early reports were positive and we will be able to provide a more complete report in time for the Liaison Committee meeting.

Summary: South Beverly is filled with great neighborhood gems and locally owned stores. We will be creating a hyper-local marketing campaign and event on this street to draw attention to these neighborhood "gems," encouraging the community to shop, dine and play in that area in connection with Valentine's Day. This campaign will focus on driving shoppers to the jewelry stores, salons, spas, boutiques and restaurants that call South Beverly home.

All the participating stores will have special promotions for the week which visitors can take advantage of. The idea behind the campaign is for consumers to patronize a number of local businesses and get discounted food and other goods in the process. This event will help the brand the area as a distinct destination within Beverly Hills.

The Chamber received feedback that the stores on the street would have liked to have more marketing materials and promotion for the campaign. Because of this, the Chamber is asking for $4,000 more in funding for this campaign than last year to increase its reach and impact.

Goals/Benefits to the Area:

- Increase exposure for merchants in addition to foot traffic
- Increase sales during the week of the event
- Street team activations will educate other businesses and community of the campaign
- Media and press; Social Media mentions

Performance Metrics:

- Survey to ascertain whether the street saw an increase in sales for the day of the event and whether they were able to see an increase in sales a month or two after the event
- Survey to residents (through My Beverly Hills) about whether their awareness of the street has increased

Marketing Collateral:

- Flyers/posters; Street banners
- Street team; Newsletters
- Local media advertising
- Purchase list for E-blast; Targeted FB ads

(2) Area Focus: South Robertson

Possible Campaign Name/Theme: Mother's Day Week on South Robertson (May 2-8, 2016)

Summary: This would be a week long campaign to promote businesses on South Robertson focused on Mother's Day. Many businesses on South Robertson are beauty-oriented and the Chamber would send out street teams to recruit businesses to sign up businesses to offer specials in advance of Mother's Day (May 8, 2016).

All the participating stores will have special promotions for the week. The idea is to promote South Robertson Drive as a distinct destination and make residents more aware of its commercial offerings.

Goals/Benefits to the Area:

- Increase exposure for merchants in addition to foot traffic
- Increase sales during the week of the event
- Street team activations will educate other businesses and community of the campaign
- Media and press; Social Media mentions

Performance Metrics:

- Survey to ascertain whether the street saw an increase in sales for the day of the event and whether they were able to see an increase in sales a month or two after the event
- Survey to residents (through My Beverly Hills) about whether their awareness of the street has increased

Marketing Collateral:

- Flyers/posters; Street banners
- Street team; Newsletters
- Local media advertising
- Purchase list for E-blast; Targeted FB ads

The total cost for the two hyper-local events are $38,000. The total cost of all three Local Marketing Initiatives is $161,000. A full cost breakdown is available in Attachment B.

III. Management of Bi-Weekly Retention Meetings with Mayor's Office (26 total meetings)

The Chamber will manage the implementation of 26 bi-weekly meetings with business owners of targeted sectors and the Beverly Hills Mayor's office. These meetings will be attended by the Mayor, a member of the City Manager's office and a Chamber staff member as well as by executives of the business itself. The goal of these meetings is for the Chamber and the Mayor's office to better understand the concerns of the business community and their experiences doing business in the City. These meetings will help the City and the Chamber develop programs for how to best support the needs of the business community.

With the New York Trip as a model, the Chamber will develop a matrix of businesses to meet with over the next year. The meetings will be with a mixture of old and new businesses, restaurants, and small and large retailers. The Chamber will look into reserving two standing times every month for these meetings to take place. The following will be the list of deliverables:

- Scheduling 26 Business Retention meetings in coordination with City Manager's office.
- Production and distribution of a one-page briefing sheet for City attendees a week before each meeting.
- Producing a quarterly report that summarizes each meeting and common themes that emerged from the meetings as a whole.

Note: Chamber will develop full matrix of targeted visits with input from City staff & Liaison Committee.

Total cost of this item would be $34,000. Cost breakdown available in Attachment C.

IV. Event Management of 2016 Mayoral Installation

Due to the year-long absence of Huma Ahmed, Community Outreach Manager, City staff proposed the possibility of having the Chamber manage the March 2016 Mayoral Installation event. This idea was the subject of a lengthy discussion at the Feb. 4 Liaison Committee where it received support.

The Chamber's Sponsorship and Events Manager would manage and produce the event to the satisfaction of the City Manager's office. These activities would include:

- Schedule and manage meetings with key City staff who support roles with the event
- Select caterer, event entertainment and work with City's Marketing Manager on vendor agreements.
- Work with City's Public Information Manager to coordinate speeches for outgoing Mayor, outgoing Vice Mayor, incoming Mayor and Vice Mayor
- Coordinate and manage all activities and budgets associated with the Installation

The Chamber's Sponsorship & Events Manager shadowed Ms. Ahmed at the most recent Installation and has solid experience dealing with all vendors and parties who would be involved in the Installation. City staff estimates that all of the tasks associated with the Installation would take 270 hours of time and may require the Chamber to hire an assistant as well.

Total cost of this item would be $34,000. Cost breakdown available in Attachment D.

V. Sponsorship of Beverly Hills Tomorrow

City will financially support the Chamber's signature event to appropriately augment City of Beverly Hills branding. Entering its fourth year, Beverly Hills Tomorrow has become a prominent event with wide media exposure soliciting great interest from businesses and influencers throughout Beverly Hills and Los Angeles. In 2015, the sold-out event was again hosted by Larry King at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts who interviewed five acclaimed industry leaders in a program that received great reviews from attendees.

A sponsorship amount of $30,000 will make the City an exclusive presenting sponsor of Beverly Hills Tomorrow in April, 2016. The City will be featured on all collateral and promotions for the event and have visibility in all publicity. As an exclusive presenting sponsor, their logo and name will be included on all marketing for the event including invitations, electronic promotion and public relations. Additionally, the City will receive up to 30 free tickets.

The total cost for this item is $30,000. Cost breakdown available in Attachment C.

VI. Small Business Development Center

The Chamber will continue its partnership with the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) at Long Beach to offer one-on-one business counseling and educational seminars at the Chamber. The new consultant who started in January has been a tremendous success garnering accolades and positive testimonials from residents and businesses who have received SBDC services.

Overall, our consultant held just under 100 meetings with Beverly Hills businesses and residents interested in opening up a location. A short list of some of the companies receiving services include: Edelweiss Chocolate, Nelson J Salon, Arthur Murray Dance Studio, Dr. Natalia Williams (orthodontics), Best Tax Audit, Encore Health Group, White Diamond Funeral Services, Jill Esplin (Leading for Life Travel), Todd Johnson, Randy Fuhrman Events, Monica Holt (women's apparel start-up). All these businesses are either based in Beverly Hills or owned by residents of the City.

As a result of the direction received during consulting sessions, several businesses have improved their operations and added to the City's tax base. For example, Leading for Life Travel (owned by resident Jill Esplin) hired two people as a result of the consulting sessions held at the Chamber and revamped her website. Best Tax Audit was able to boost its client base and online marketing. Edelweiss Chocolates revamped its online presence and merchandizing and secured a big account with Showtime for a premiere party.

Educational seminars have also been successful with strong attendance on topics such as marketing, reading financial statements and creating a business plan. These seminars will continue to be offered once a month in the Chamber's Board Room and be publicized by the Chamber and the SBDC.

The total cost for this item is $20,000. Cost breakdown available in Attachment C.

VII. Small Business Saturday

The Chamber will organize the outreach efforts for Small Business Saturday on Nov. 28. The Chamber has developed a strong relationship with the national agency that provided all branded materials for Small Business Saturday and offered constructive criticism to make the day even more successful.

Highlights of the 2014 Small Business Saturday (on Nov. 29, 2014) campaign include:

- Launch party at Pussy & Pooch that was attended by 70 members of the business community and included remarks by Councilmember Brien and several business owners.
- Passed out collateral at Farmers Market, employed street teams that passed out promotional material and signed up businesses to participate.
- Large social media campaign including contests and prizes.
- Overall, our efforts helped us sign up over 100 businesses to participate.
- On the day of Small Business Saturday, Chamber staff, ambassadors and Mayor Bosse visited a dozen different businesses around town to promote and draw attention to the event
- Received press coverage in the Beverly Hills Weekly, the Courier and Westsidetoday.com. Also received commendation from American Express for our campaign.
- American Express's national commercial to promote Small Business Saturday features John Mirisch (from when he was Mayor in 2013) and Norbert from the Cheese Store.

This year, the Chamber will continue to aggressively promote the campaign in partnership with American Express and seek to increase the number of businesses participating.

The total cost for this item is $10,000. Cost Breakdown available in Attachment C.

VIII. Broker's Roundtable

The Chamber will organize and host two Broker's Roundtable meetings in December and June. The Roundtables provide an opportunity for the leading commercial brokers and senior officials from the City to gather and share information about new developments.

The past year's Roundtables addressed issues regarding the expansion of in-lieu parking and the possible creation of a checklist for brokers filling available spaces. Both the City and the broker community have shared that they find these meetings very informative – brokers are able to learn firsthand about new ordinances and developments that affect their business and city officials are able to learn about the comings and goings of important tenants.

Highlights of the past year include:

- The Director of Community Development briefed brokers about updates to securing outdoor dining permits and proposed changes to how the City may regulate tour busses. Brokers also appreciated information shared by the CVB on the amount of dollars spent by tourists – information they were able to share with prospective clients looking for space to rent.
- Chamber and City officials learned of potential spaces coming available at the June 2014 Roundtable to share with businesses that would soon meet with on the New York Mission.
- Brokers mentioned new building spaces becoming available with tenants leaving and announced the arrival of key new tenants. City officials were previously unaware of some of these recent moves and appreciated the information to prepare for their arrival.
- Perhaps the key suggestion from the December 2014 roundtable involved a suggestion about the creation of a "New Tenant Checklist" that would inform new brick-and-mortar tenants in the City of the steps they need to take to do a build-out, etc. Months later, the Chamber met members of the Community Development Department to discuss implementing this suggestion.

We will continue to organize the agenda of these meetings around current development topics among the broker community as well as the City Manager's office & Planning Commission. The Chamber currently invites about 30 brokers to these meetings.

The total cost for this item is $10,000. Cost breakdown is available in Attachment C.

IX. Updating of Beverly Hills Map

The Chamber will continue to act as an assistant project manager overseeing the bi-annual production of an accurate Beverly Hills map that represents businesses in all commercial areas of the City. This map is considered the main source of information for Beverly Hills businesses, visitors and residents alike and circulated to the community through the various distribution channels of all partners and members of the CVB and the Chamber.

Working in conjunction with the CVB and Trends Media, the Chamber ensures that businesses are accurately represented. The Chamber will serve in this role for the two editions of the updated map that come out in December and June. Overall, 25,000 maps are printed and distributed twice a year.

The total cost for this item is $5,000. Cost breakdown is available in Attachment C.
