NOES: Commissioner Miller, Vice Chair Baseman, Chair Milkowski

FAILED

Motion: MOVED by Vice Chair Baseman, SECONDED by Commissioner Miller to recommend to the City Council that the eviction moratorium for non-payment of rent due to COVID-19 end on the same date as the state moratorium ends, as such date may be amended, and that the one-year clock for repayment of rent begin running at that time (4-2).

AYES: Commissioners Miller, Sokoloff, Vice Chair Baseman, Chair Milkowski
NOES: Commissioners Bronte, Tryfman

CARRIED

After continued discussion, the majority of the Commission expressed interest, via straw poll, in modifying or ending the moratorium on rent increases.

Motion: MOVED by Vice Chair Baseman, SECONDED by Commissioner Miller to recommend to the City Council that the moratorium on rent increases ends on the same day as the moratoriums for evictions for non-payment of rent ends at the State level, with the provisions that rent increases be implemented immediately except that there would be no rent increase within the next six months, irrespective of the natural anniversary date for rent increases in the first year only (2-4).

AYES: Commissioner Miller, Vice Chair Baseman
NOES: Commissioners Bronte, Sokoloff, Tryfman, Chair Milkowski

FAILED

Discussion and the Commission’s potential recommendation regarding moratoriums on rent increases will be continued to the next meeting.

Commissioner Gurman left the meeting at 9:18 PM.

After further continued discussion, the majority of the Commission expressed interest, via straw poll, to keep the moratorium regarding no-fault evictions as-is. This will also be continued to the next meeting for further discussion and potential recommendation.
