City Holds National Night Out Aug. 2

Beverly Hills Event Focuses on Health, Safety and Emergency Preparedness

Beverly Hills, CA – The City of Beverly Hills is hosting its annual National Night Out event with exhibits, displays and an opportunity to meet the new Police Chief Sandra Spagnoli. It will be held Tue., Aug. 2 from 6 to 9 p.m. on Rexford Drive in front of City Hall. This year's activities include:

- Fire Department display
- Police Department SWAT and K-9 displays
- Campfire songs and storytelling with Library and Community Services staff
- CPR display from Beverly Hills CPR
- Water conservation tips
- Social media booth
- Disaster, health and safety information
- Safe-T-Proof quake cottage
- Crime prevention information
- Food trucks and more!

Parking is available in the Rexford parking structure (enter from Santa Monica Boulevard) and the Crescent Drive parking structure. For more information, please contact bhpdinfo@beverlyhills.org.

National Night Out began in 1984 as an effort to promote neighborhood camaraderie, police-community partnerships and involvement in crime prevention activities. The National Night Out program takes place annually, on the first Tuesday of August.
