Over 500 Swimmers Completed the Beverly Hills Swim Challenge

Beverly Hills, Calif. -- City of Beverly Hills Community Service Department in cooperation with Beverly Hills Aquatics owner Diego Cevallos offered the Swim Challenge this summer, a program designed to encourage water competency. All Beverly Hills residents enrolled in the City's aquatics program were eligible to take the challenge. Over 500 swimmers completed the Swim Challenge.

Pictured, Diego Cevallos (to the right) celebrates with swimmers who successfully completed the Beverly Hills Swim Challenge which required participants to show competency in six aquatic safety skills.
