Shakespeare's "As You Like It" at Roxbury Park Draws Over 250 People

Shakespeare by the Sea's cast performed As You Like it to 250 people at Roxbury Park.

Beverly Hills, Calif. –Beverly Hills Community Services Department and Shakespeare by the Sea presented a free performance of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" to over 250 people who attended the event at Roxbury Park on August 20. Shakespeare by the Sea's talented cast and directors presented professionally-crafted production of this beloved story about the enchanting take of love set in the Forest of Arden.

"This is the fifth season that Community Services has participated in this event. Audiences have come to love Shakespeare by the Sea for its very professional productions of Shakespeare's timeless plays," said Patty Acuna, Roxbury Park Community Center Supervisor. "They are presented completely free of admission under the beautiful summer sky."
