Junior Master Gardener Pop-up Class Opportunities Available at City of Beverly Hills Greystone Mansion Demonstration Garden

Kids Learn About Soil Analysis and Composting and More

Beverly Hills, Calif. – Two Junior Master Gardener pop-up class opportunities for kids ages 6 years old to 12 years old have been added for July at the Beverly Hills Greystone Mansion Demonstration Garden. Free classes taught by Master Gardener Johanna Arias-Bhatia are available on July 14th and July 16th from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. at Greystone Demonstration Garden, 905 Loma Vista Drive, Beverly Hills, California. The July 14th class will focus on soil analysis and composting. The July 16th class will feature soil health and Wiggly Worms (Vermiculture). Kids can drop in for one of the classes or both. For more information, contact Johanna at 323-447-2923.

The Junior Master Gardener Classes are through the University of California Cooperative Extension and are taught by certified Master Gardeners, providing children with hands-on experience in gardening activities.
