LA Marathon Comes Through Beverly Hills on February 14

Farmers' Market Closed and Limited Street Access in City

Beverly Hills, Calif. -- Street closures along the route for the Beverly Hills segment of the LA Marathon on February 14, 2016 will begin at 6 a.m. and reopen at 1 p.m. The route in Beverly Hills begins at Santa Monica Boulevard and Doheny Drive where runners will head south on Doheny Drive, west on Burton Way to Rodeo Drive, south to Wilshire Blvd, and then west to Santa Monica Boulevard.

The Beverly Hills Farmers' Market will be closed as well due to limited street access during the Marathon.

Police staff and notification/message boards directing vehicles will be situated around the City. In addition, if someone is arriving by freeway, it is suggested that:

- For Beverly Hills access north of the route arriving from the 405 Freeway, exit either Sunset Boulevard or Wilshire Boulevard and travel east to Beverly Hills.
- For Beverly Hills access south of the route from the 405 freeway, take the 10 east freeway, exit Robertson Boulevard and travel north to Beverly Hills.
