City of Beverly Hills Names Ryan Gohlich to Run Planning Division

Beverly Hills, CA – The City of Beverly Hills has appointed Ryan Gohlich to the position of City Planner / Assistant Director of Community Development, effective April 6, 2015. Gohlich will oversee the Planning Division.

Gohlich has worked at the City for more than seven years. He is known as a problem-solver and a great communicator with in-depth knowledge of planning issues and best practices.

"Ryan's extensive knowledge of planning and Beverly Hills and his leadership skills will be invaluable in working with our community to maintain our City's unique brand and world-class stature," said Community Development Director Susan Healy Keene.

He graduated from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo with a degree in City and Regional Planning and recently earned his master's degree in Organizational Leadership from Woodbury University. Prior to joining the Beverly Hills team, he worked for two years as an associate planner at the private planning firm, Crawford, Multari & Clark Associates.
