INVITATION TO COVER:

Beverly Hills Dog Park Groundbreaking Ceremony

- WHO: Mayor John Mirisch and Councilmembers, Recreation and Parks Commissioners, City of Beverly Hills staff, dogs and community members
- WHAT: Groundbreaking Ceremony for the first-ever Beverly Hills Community Dog Park located on the corner of Foothill Road and Alden Drive. Over 18,000 square feet of dedicated space will provide dogs and their owners with an off-leash dog park separately accommodating large and small dogs.
- WHEN: Tuesday, May 3, 2016 at 1:30 p.m.
- WHERE: Beverly Hills Dog Park site on the northwest corner of Foothill Road and Alden Drive.
- WHY: The opening of the Beverly Hills Community Dog Park has been a highly-anticipated event and there is much buzz and excitement in the community to the scheduled opening in late summer, 2016.
- OTHER: A donation campaign has commenced to help build a community dog park that complements the City of Beverly Hills and its beautiful spaces. Donations can help add benches, trees, landscaping, art and agility features. Donations are now being accepted. To make donations, visit www.beverlyhills.org/dogpark.
