Share & Care Day at Beverly Hills Farmers' Market

Donate New and Gently-used Baby's and Children's Items for Underprivileged Kids

Beverly Hills, Calif. – The City of Beverly Hills Community Services Department will host Share & Care Day at the Beverly Hills Farmers' Market on Sunday, December 9, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. to benefit underprivileged babies and children through the Baby2Baby organization that provides low income children with basic necessities. The day will include a craft corner for kids of all ages.

New and gently used baby's and children's items for kids up to 12-years-old will be accepted. Baby wipes, diapers, backpacks, school supplies, clothing, shoes, toiletries and toys are some examples of items needed. Monetary donations will also be accepted. Checks should be made out to the Baby2Baby organization.

In the Kids Zone, children can enjoy the petting zoo or participate in holiday craft-making. Crafts include:

- Pinecone ornaments and critters
- Orange pomander balls and special gift bags
- Sparkly ornaments

Supplies for crafts are complimentary and offered while supplies last.
