- Participant questions and comments that were answered live during the meeting:
 - Are we setting up a "pen pals" or video chats /daily check-in with seniors or isolated people
 - Can we get more accurate stock information from the local grocery stores etc particularly if we are going to be helping seniors with shopping etc
 - I am concerned that we go to the seniors not knowing if we are infected our self.

 - I am interested in coordinating deliveries/drops to seniors and a pen pal/phone call/video chat program with isolated people Drew Baldwin drewpbaldwin@gmail.com
 - Facebook kindness task force page?
 - Question: are non-critical stores able to deliver, like Color Me Mine for art therapy?
 - I saw a good idea to help with social distance: at grocery store checkout lines, put stickers on the floor marking where people should stand, to make sure distance is kept.
 - I've been feeding kids and families with the Red Cross so any collaboration that you may want to do with Red Cross, I'm happy to coordinate that.
 - I am willing to help but I cannot hear what is going on so I will leave the meeting. Let me know what I can do. Petero@ostroff.la
 - Is the city going to allow cannabis deliveries to the City other than medical?
 - Me and some friends who are willing to get groceries or pharmaceuticals for the elderly or whoever else needs them. Please let me know how we can coordinate this
 - Also, seniors with dogs who might need support.
 - I feel like I heard Spectrum is offering free internet access for 60 days. Don't know what the restrictions are.
 - Are you aware of any issue with the mail service in BH? I believe our condo building has not received mail in a day or two.
 - I think it's so important for our community mental health to feel like there is something we can do to help. We are isolated, we feel powerless. Happy to help identify and match the needs and the volunteer resources and interest.
 - A WhatsApp group is a great idea, as well as a website.
 - thx and also let's figure out how to get supplies to single parent households I'm happy to coordinate
 - On behalf of the Commission, looking forward to working with everyone!
 - Hi Pam, Please let me know directly how Red Cross can coordinate with OEM too
