“The History of Beverly Hills: 100 Years, 100 Stories” Premieres
Jan. 7, 2016 at the Wallis

The documentary screening is free and open to the community

Beverly Hills, Calif. – The City of Beverly Hills and the Beverly Hills Historical Society invite the community to the premiere of The History of Beverly Hills: 100 Years, 100 Stories in the Bram Goldsmith Theater at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts on Thu. Jan. 7 at 7:30 p.m.

Directed and produced by Phil Savenick of the Beverly Hills Historical Society, The History of Beverly Hills: 100 Years, 100 Stories offers an inside look at life in Beverly Hills from the Rancho Days to the 21st Century. The City's vibrant past comes alive through interviews with more than 150 Beverly Hills residents and hundreds of rare photographs and film clips. Find out why Beverly Hills became the most famous small city in the world!

Reserve your tickets now! While the event is free of charge, the Wallis has limited capacity. Advance registration is required for seating. Arrivals will take place from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Theater doors open at 7 p.m.

For vehicles entering after 6 p.m., parking is free at the Civic Center parking structure on Rexford Drive and $5 at the Crescent Drive structure.

To reserve your ticket, call 213-792-2447 or e-mail bh100rsvp@gmail.com.
