

Courtesy notice to City of Beverly Hills residents regarding potential operational changes at Virginia Robinson Gardens

This is a courtesy notice to inform you of an upcoming Virtual Community Meeting hosted by the County of Los Angeles that will be held on November 15, 2021 that involves proposed operational changes at Virginia Robinson Gardens (1008 Elden Way, Beverly Hills, CA 90210) that may impact your neighborhood.

Please note, this meeting is not being hosted by the City of Beverly Hills, and this is not a City of Beverly Hills project. This meeting is being hosted by the County of Los Angeles Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR). You may have already received information from DPR regarding this meeting. The notice that was created by the County of Los Angeles, which includes additional project details can be viewed at beverlyhills.org/vrgnotice.

The Virtual Community Meeting will discuss the proposed modifications at Virginia Robinson Gardens which include:

- Days open to the public: Monday to Sunday (the facility is currently closed on Sundays);
- Hours for public use: 9:30 a.m. to sunset (the facility currently closes at 4:00PM);
- Number of patrons in attendance: With advance reservations, up to 200 visitors per day, spread throughout the day for either tours, meetings seminars/classes, events or commercial filming (video only, no motion picture) or a combination of these activities (visitors are currently limited to a maximum of 100 per day);
- Types of events: In addition to existing events, consider family ceremonies such as weddings (weddings and similar events are not currently allowed);
- Special uses: up to 24 special use events a year/approximately 2 per month (special events are currently limited to 4 per year).
